Okay - it's been a bad day. While waiting for my Mom on a visit, I picked up the paper to learn of Gerry's untimely passing and while about to write sister Bobbie to send her a note, I learn that SHE passed earlier in March. What is going on?!?!? This is too much. Both phenomenal people and very filled with love and a giving spirit. I feel sick to my stomach that I didn't get the chance to say goodbye to either or these powerful sisters...
