McLister: Catherine Ann "Cathy" 1959-2018.

It is with great sadness that the family.. announces the passing of Cathy McLister), on June 26, 2018. Cathy lived in Toronto, and passed away, in her home, after a week long illness.

Cathy was born in Windsor,On., attended the University of Windsor and from there moved to Toronto. She loved the Theatre, she was in a drumming band and a choir. She loved the Toronto Zoo, attending several times a year and made sure, all her nieces and nephews got to visit the Zoo, as well. She was a fantastic crafter. Her specialty was beading, and one, of the pieces she made, was chosen for the cover, of a monthly beading magazine.

Cathy is survived by her mother, Carol (McLister) Wilson, who loves her dearly and considers Cathy the family treasure. She is also survived by sister's and best friend Brenda McLister (Rick), Nancy Pimiskern (Eric) two brothers, Jim McLister (Debra) and John McLister (Deb). Who all adore their dear Cathy.

She is also the favourite Aunt of 12 nieces and nephews.

Cathy would want only one thing in her honour, one of her beloved nephews, 14 yr old Mike, has a terrible stage 4 childhood cancer and he has spent most of this past year, in the hospital. He is in London right now, for 5 weeks of radiation. Please in Cathy's name, donate to Ronald MacDonald House or ChildCan, that will make Cathy happy and could help Mike and other children get well.

At Cathy's request, cremation has already taken place and a family get together, will be held at a later date.

A quote by one of Cathy's Favourite Authors:"

" If there ever comes a day, when we can't be together, keep me in your heart, I'll stay there for ever.".... by Winnie the Pooh

“ My name is Susan. I worked with Cathy. We used to sing together in the lunchroom. Cathy taught us many happy songs. She made my granddaughter a beautiful hat when she was born. She also baked me the most delicious brownies for my birthday. Cathy was kind, creative and sensitive. I know she loved her nephew very much. I miss her a lot.

“ Thank you for your kind words Susan, Cathy told me she really liked, where she worked, because the people were so very nice. She sure was a kind person, When she came home for a visit, all the kids would get so excited to see what kind of surprises, she would bring. All her family loved her and she had a special place in her heart, for her nephew Mike, who has cancer. He loves her dearly and right now is going through 5 weeks of radiation, please say a prayer for Mike and that would mean a lot to Cathy. God Bless You Susan, Maybe we could keep in touch. My life will never be the same again, but Cathy sure left us with wonderful memories. Very Sincerely, Carol Wilson.
