

Frederic Scott McKanday

June 8, 2020

July 9, 1954 – June 8, 2020

After a courageous battle, Scott passed peacefully on June 8, 2020 at Port Perry Hospital. Scott is survived by his loving partner Jane Irving, his mother Alice Truman of Hamilton, sisters Leslie McKanday and Candace Gaudet (Joseph) both of Hamilton, Laura Buckland (Bill) of Sarasota FL and brother Ted McKanday (Joan) of Woodstock, ON. The Irving family, Irene, Walter, Maggie, Sarah, Macey and Ashley will also miss Scott dearly. He will also be missed by his good friends, whom have been so supportive throughout his journey.

Those who knew Scott knew he loved a good party. When safe to do so there will be a “Celebration of Life”.

Those wishing to donate in Scott’s memory are asked to consider

Greenbank Centennial Hall, 19965 Highway #12 N, Greenbank, ON L0C 1B0

or

Uxbridge-Scugog Animal Control Centre, 1360 Reach Street, Port Perry, ON L9L 1B2

Comments

“ We are so sorry to learn of Scott's passing. Our son had the privilege of being Scott and Jane's newspaper boy years ago. They bonded quickly when Mitch would arrive at the door with a Green Bay Packers hat or a Bills hat. Scott always teased him and told him he wouldn't be getting paid that week since he wasn't wearing a Raider's hat. They always had a laugh together. Thanks for the memories. Our condolences to Jane , from The Tones Family

Nancy Tones - June 23 at 11:43 AM

“ My thoughts and prayers are with Jane and Scott's families at this time. Over the years I have had the opportunity to share many memories and laughs with Scott and Jane. I will always remember the day this picture was taken. Scott was so pumped up and excited for Super Bowl XXXVII. RIP Scott.

Elaine Kinsella - June 19 at 01:24 PM

“ Scott was by far the coolest neighbor I've ever had. It was a joy living next to him and getting to spend so much time getting to know him for a few years. I would look forward to seeing him outside, drinking a beer (or 10), and just hanging out. There were so many times I'd end up talking to him for hours. He loved getting into all of the big ideas, and joking around about silly nonsense in his garage,

We had great conversations on a regular basis. He was such a funny guy, always laughing, telling jokes and stories. He was smart too. I think Scott had probably read more books than anyone I have ever met. Whenever I was reading something, there was a good chance Scott had already read it and was able to talk about it.

I really enjoyed knowing him. Thanks for everything Scott. You were a really cool guy. Rest in peace, old friend.

Clay

Clay Trainor - June 10 at 02:33 PM

“ We are so sorry to hear about Scott's passing.
Scott was a really good neighbour.
You are in our thoughts Jane
The Trainor Family

Terry and Cindy Trainor - June 09 at 08:21 PM