

Giuseppe Nemi

April 27, 2020

It is with heavy heart that we announce that Giuseppe Nemi passed away on the evening of Monday April 27, 2020 at Credit Valley Hospital.

He leaves behind a loving family and will be deeply missed by his wife Ann Nemi, two son's Derek & Keith Nemi, grand-daughter Kiana Nemi, daughter in-law Claudia Nemi, sister Rosa Carducci, two brothers Armando & Vince Nemi, many cousins, nieces, nephews and friends; and let also remember his predeceased sister Rina Francazi.

Joe was born on January 1, 1943 in Italy and moved to Canada as a young man and started working as a barber and continued for 60 years.

He loved spending time with his family, playing golf, bocce and telling jokes that he learned from all his wonderful customers; he loved cutting hair and didn't see it as a job but instead was passionate about it and enjoyed every moment of it regardless of what life brought.

His cremation is taking place and although a celebration of life is not possible at this time, it will be arranged as soon as it is safe to do so.

You will be missed every day; until we meet again.

Rest in Peace.

“ Joe cut my hair, my father’s hair, and my grandfather’s hair, he will be missed and I will never forget how he even went to my grandfather’s condo to give him one last haircut before he passed away in 2008.

“ I just learned of Joe’s passing today. So very sad. My condolences to his family. Joe gave me my first haircut and was my barber and friend for the next 60 years. He was a true gentlemen and a great guy. He is sorely missed.

“ Joe cut my father’s hair in the early 70s as well as mine and my two young boys. We had been going to him ever since...through Crestview Plaza, Courtesy Chev and then finally at Dr. Simone’s warehouse. Joe was a truly special human being who loved what he did and his customers. We heard so many great stories of his lovely family. So many wonderful stories he would tell my dad, myself and my children and he would have us all laughing for hours on end. It was always a great time to visit Joe. He just made you feel great. I am thankful I got a chance to speak to him last summer. I will never forget those words he told me “take care of yourself and love every moment”. We are all very, very sad about this terrible loss and send our condolences and prayers to the Nemi family. God Bless You Joe! We will all miss you!

“ Just found out Joe had passed away today. So sad. He will be dearly missed. Joe started cutting my hair around 1980. I always enjoyed my haircuts as Joe was always upbeat and had such good stories. He was one of a kind. His customers were so loyal, they followed him wherever he moved and came from great distances. My son went there for the last 20 years. Joe always spoke highly of his wife and the kids. Will be missed so much. He added happiness to all our lives. Such a good man.

“ Joe, a great man, a great boss! We had so much fun together! He taught me so much. A fantastic teacher. Always talked about his family, soccer and the love he had for his customers. I stopped to see him one day many years ago and it was like no time had passed. We were right back into the fun banter and we updated each other on our lives. He will always be in my life stories because he was just that important to me. A very special man and greatly missed by many. U xo

“ I just found out that Joe passed away, we last spoke in March by phone. Very sad day, like many I went to joe once per month for close to 60 years- I always called him “Giuseppe de Roma” when I called to which he answered in typical joe humour “that’s a me”RIP Joe

“ On This sad occasion I would offer my condolences to Ann, Kieth, Derek, and the whole Nemi family. I heard of Joes passing and I am very sad to have received this news. I was going to Joe since I was 8 years old when he was working out of Crestview Plaza. Joe was one in a million to a lot of people. His personality always was sunny, and he resonated with all who chatted with him. Joe was a man whom you liked from the moment you said hello. When I was older I had the honour and privilege of bringing my girlfriend's boys to him. I have no sons of my own, but Joe treated them as if they were, which made me feel amazing. It was a bit of a funny moment, but my girlfriend's daughter was searching for someone to cut her hair, and he immediately piped up and said, quote innocently, but with honest intent, "you should go to Joes. He does a really good job". I will also kiss his jokes, and in the particular way he told them. Joe will be missed by a lot of people, and I know because I will be one of them. I will always have my memories of Joe to help me, and I hope everyone will lean on their own moments with Joe to help them too. Because, that was Joe. A champion among men! Rest In Peace my friend. Good bye Pasquali.

“ Our deepest condolences to the family! Joe was a gem of a man. He cut my my husbands hair for years and gave my son his first haircut when he was a toddler (who is now 21). He will be sadly missed by everyone! Vicki, Andy & Bailey Wolfs

“ Joe and the Barber Shoppe will forever be a kind memory I will carry with me my whole life. Joe gave me my first hair cut, and every hair cut until I was about 18, when I moved away, I'm 40 now. I remember going as a kid, not only with my dad, but my grand dad, it was a family thing, a tradition. My dad and grandfather started getting their hair cut from Joe back "when he was a kid".. at Vince's. I'll always remember his kind smile, humming a tune on the radio, and shaking his scissors with a grin "eyes forward!" Thank you Joe.

Peter Hart - May 12, 2020 at 10:55 PM

“ My deepest condolences to Ann and family. Joe was a true gem. Having given me my first haircut in 1978, and then continued with my two boys, Joe will be sorely missed. Saturday's were a ritual of a haircut and pizza... and sometimes we'd raise a glass , salut  Joe! We lost a good one.

Matthew Quattrociocchi - May 12, 2020 at 09:50 PM

“ I am heart broken learning that Joe passed. He was a genuine person. Joe gave my brother Michael and I our first haircuts. He continued to cut my hair until he recently retired. When my father was very ill he came to the house to cut his hair. He also went cut the hair of a friend who had suffered a stroke was in hospital. The barbershop was a great place to get reacquainted with friends and meet new ones as well. Joe was much more than a barber, he was everyone's friend. He always had a nice thing to say and he was a wonderful conversationalist. To say that he will be missed is an understatement. The world has truly lost a very nice and kind man. Our thoughts and prayers are with the family which he held so dear.

Take good care my friend.

“ I'm so sorry to hear about this today! Joe started cutting my hair when I was 8 years old I believe. I had not seen Joe for the last 20 years but I would often ask folks if he was still cutting hair. My thoughts and prayers are with you and I know he is telling some good jokes in heaven. Love you and thanks for being part of my life.

“ Deepest condolences to the entire Nemi family. I had my first haircut at Joes' when I was 1, and I'm now 47 years old, living in Ottawa. My Dad would race over to Joe's from the Go Train for a haircut just before Joe's 6pm close. 3 Generations of the Edwards family, starting with my my late father Archie (gone 10 yrs now) , myself and 2 sons Gareth & Callum. Joe would call Callum - 'Calino' and always called me Pasquale. I've lived in Ottawa for over 15 years and always tried to time my haircuts for visits back to Port Credit. Joe's stories, love of family and sport is what I will always remember. RIP Joe ! Definitely one of life's good guys.

Paul Edwards - May 12, 2020 at 10:36 AM

“ I started with Joe when I was 18 and introduced Dad a few years later when he needed a good barber for his Mayoral run. Dad looked forward to seeing Joe at least once a month. He would make me jump through hoops to get him in for a haircut, after he could no longer get there himself, wheelchair and all. Joe would move heaven and earth and a few cars too when he was at Courtesy so that I could drive down the ramp and wheel him through the showroom. What a huge personality and a heart that was even bigger. Joe's stories and subtly spoken wisdom made every visit a treat. I'll miss his jokes! R.I.P. my friend.

Mark Searle - May 12, 2020 at 10:18 AM

“ Joe was my dad’s barber, from the late 1960’s until his passing in 1981. Crestview Plaza was always a bit of a hub mostly due to Joe and his friendly way with all of his customers. His black appointment book was a journal and frankly a “who’s who” —a written history of all who had the privilege of getting a haircut from Joe— especially around the holidays. No matter how busy he was, he took time for every client, whether they had hair to cut or not.

In the mid 1980’s Joe started cutting my then boyfriend, now husband’s hair. Michael had no problem getting up at the crack of dawn to line up on a Saturday morning to be “first in the chair” for Joe—and flash forward to 1998, Joe gave our son, JP, his first haircut, and it was a great honour for me as a mom, to see his picture with Joe still up on the wall at Joe’s newer location on Lakeshore, so many years later.... Joe was a great counsellor to JP and I think they had a special friendship. I’m sure everyone felt that way about Joe. So, three generations of “Joe the Barber” cutting hair. But more than that, Joe was a friend . He was an anchor in Port Credit and he will be missed. Rest In Peace.

“ My Dad, brother and I started getting our hair cut with Joe in 1960 at Vince's Barber Shop in Crestview Plaza which later became Joe's. No matter where in the world I lived I would fly or drive back to Joe's to get me hair cut. Joe was not only our barber but a good friend! I will always remember Joe for his smile and jokes. We would reminisce about the old days as we chatted while sitting in the chair. Even as Joe was going through his treatments he would ask about my parents and send his best whenever we had a chance to talk on the phone. My family and I send our deepest sympathy and condolences to the Nemi family. Joe will be missed by all who knew him. RIP Joe!

“ I first met Joe in 1971 when he worked for Vincens Barbershop at Crestview plaza. Joe bought the business and Joe's Barbershop was created and he was very successful. Getting your haircut with Joe was in my case mostly conversations about our mutual interest in horse racing a passion we both shared. When I created Big Win Racing our racehorse syndicate Joe was one of the partners we had alot of fun. Joe touched alot of lives and will be missed by many. May you RIP my friend until we meet again.

Paul Marshall - May 11, 2020 at 11:16 PM

“ I had a job on some Saturday mornings that started very early. Driving past the Crestview Plaza at that early hour, I would usually see 3 or 4 cars parked in front of Joe's. The drivers asleep behind the wheels waiting for the shop to open. Sometimes they would sleep through the opening time with a few sneaking in ahead of them. The Stanley Cup would, on occasion to the shop. It was unannounced, but the news spread like wildfire. And crowds came, took photos and memories. Joe was always welcoming and cheerful, and the people in the lobby waiting never seemed to mind. There was an occasion when I was waiting for a cut, and an older gentleman had just finished. He sat down beside me (said he was waiting for his wife) as I was reading the Mississauga paper and made a comment about Hazel McCallion. . I said 'she was probably going to die in that chair ... and that no one had challenged her since Ron Searle, the forth Mayor of Mississauga after he tried a rally in the 78.election He kind of chuckled and saw his ride appear. As he was leaving, Joe looked at me and cheerfully called out 'Have a Great Day Ron !!'

I moved from Mississauga a few years ago, but will always remember Joe Nemi. My condolences to his family and friends. RIP

“ Joe has been cutting my hair since I was 12 years old (I'm 50 now) when my friend brought me along for a haircut after school to his place at Crestview. I'll always remember his welcoming nature, friendly banter, conversations about the Leafs, and funny jokes. It never felt like I was going to get a haircut; it was like my 6 week visit to see my friend. Never will I look forward to getting a haircut again as I did when I went to Joe's. RIP Joe and it's so long for now. My condolences to the family and friends.

“ Uncle Joe or as my brother David and I always called him “Joe Joe” was always smiling and happy. Positive, warm, and kind are just a few words of many to describe him.

A great big brother. My dad shared a story with me that when he first came to Canada, Uncle Joe was the one to his rescue; protecting him from any kids who tried to bully him for not speaking English too well. They shared a birthday cake almost every year and blew out their candles together.

We will always cherish the wonderful Christmas Eves we were blessed to spend with Uncle Joe eating, drinking, and laughing while traditionally watching Seinfeld as a family and playing Kris Kringle.

Rest peacefully Uncle Joe

Joe/Uncle Joe,

You have left us too soon but you have also left us the gift of YOU. We remember you as a wonderful brother, brother-in-law and uncle. We cherish all the times spent together as young boys growing up together, fun times in our homes, at the farm and on special occasions. The laughs we shared over your joke telling and reminiscing over family stories will surely be missed but fondly recalled. We know the Gates of Heaven have opened wide for you and those who are in Heaven, especially our adoring parents, our beloved sister Rina and family and friends, have wrapped their loving arms around you.

You are and always will be a special part of our family and we are blessed to have had you shine in our lives. We already miss you so very much and you will ALWAYS be in our hearts.

Joe was my brother, we came to Canada when I was 16 and he was 14. We grew up together, always laughing and playing, and singing while working in the fields. We pretended to speak English, preparing for our new lives in Canada.

We loved playing bocce, sometimes on the same team and sometimes against each other. No matter who won or lost we were happy.

We were heartbroken to hear of Joe's passing.

Joe always had a smile on his face and a joke to share. He was the kind of person who, if you hadn't seen each other in a while, he'd make you feel as if no time had passed. One of my fondest memories is Joe cutting my dad's hair in his parents basement on Montrose Avenue in Toronto, and if I was misbehaving, he would tease me and say he'd cut off my dad's ear if I didn't behave.

“ Ann, Keith, Derek & Family, we would like to express our deepest condolences for your loss. I grew up with Joe in Italy in the same house, we were born 5 months apart, we were so close that we grew up like brothers. When I arrived to Canada I lived with Joe and his family at his parents house until I was married and we were very close. Those were very happy times and those memories will last forever. We were so delighted when Joe and Ann asked my wife Caterina and I to be his best man and maid of honour at their wedding. We even had the honour of being godparents to both Derek and Keith. We have fond memories of being together at family gatherings and he has a very special place in our hearts. He always made everyone smile and his loss will be felt deeply by all of us. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all during this difficult time.

“ Such sad news. My sincere condolences to his family.

I first met Joe 25 years ago when I walked into his shop in search of a new barber. Prior to that day I had always hated getting a haircut but Joe soon turned the experience into an event to look forward to. Not only was he a consummate professional, he was an old school master at his craft. More than that, he was a gentleman, a storyteller and a friend. I consider it an honour and privilege to have known him. I will miss Joe but I certainly won't forget him.

“ A little over 20 years ago my barber retired. Derek suggested I go see his Joe. When I walked in the shop he looked up at me and said “what do you want a flat top?” It was then that I knew he was The Barber for me. I have missed coming to see you every four weeks, listening to your jokes and stories. You will be missed by so many people.

“ I was very blessed, like so many young men, to have the priviledge and honour of sweeping the barber floor of hair to feed to the tiger in the basement. Zio Joe was always fun and loving. He shall forever live on in our memories and hearts. We love and miss you Zio.

“ What can I really say at a time like this about the life of a good man Joe Nemi. I have known Joe for over 25 years through his son, my high school best friend Derek Nemi. Joe was a very patient, calm and level headed man who seemed to always be positive and say kind things to everyone I know. The last conversation I had with him, he simple said to me when I said...How are Joe? He said..I'm good. Then he said.....no one asks if your happy
And he is right. Now says...are you happy? It just stuck with me for some reason...maybe today is the reason why it stuck. He was good man and he will be sadly missed from his friends, family and extended friends and family. It hits home for me really hard and I will never ever forget him. Very good man and so many more stories I could share bit this is all I wish to share now. God rest your soul and your spirit will go on forgotten.

“ Joe will always be remembered to me as a man with a smile on his face with jokes to tell. He related so easily to my son's with nicknames like "Pasquale", which always made them laugh. He was easy to talk to and was a genuine kind man with a huge heart. Our deepest sympathies to our best friends Derek and Claudia and our god-daughter Kiana. Sincere condolences to the entire family as you cope with your loss and heavy hearts. Thinking of all of you, Christine and John Bongertman xo

“ We remember Joe as a very pleasant and funny man, always with a smile and with a joke to tell - Tony's haircuts at Joe's shop used to be the highlight of his day -
May all you find comfort, strength and love in this tremendously difficult time.

“ Joe is a person that brings a smile to your face whenever you think of him. From about 4 years old, I would walking into Vince's and Joe would give me a welcoming word, a laughing smile, throw the padded board across the arms of the barber's chair and I would climb up to get my hair cut. He always had a story, a joke, or just chat with you about anything.

Joe was a good man, a solid citizen, and a kind friend. We miss him but will wear the smile that he inspired in us all.

“ My sincerest condolences to the Nemi Family and all of the many Friends he would know and often talk about .

Joe would always be willing to share a wonderful life story....and of course depending on your tolerance and even better story would arise...

I will miss the often entertaining "Speaking Italian" courses he would provide me with.. at no extra charge...however, I believe more so he got a bigger charge out of giving them..

I would like to Thank the Nemi family for sharing him with us...

He will be spoken of highly and missed dearly..

Thank you.
