

Jennifer Hooper

April 18, 2020

We are sad to announce the passing of Jenny Hooper, who passed peacefully at home after her courageous battle with ovarian cancer at the age of 48. She is survived by daughter Jessica and son Bailey. She will be greatly missed by her children, siblings Rick, Sabrina and Patricia, and many nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and friends. Jenny was a beautiful, strong soul who was loved by so many! She was taken from us too soon, but we find peace in knowing she is now rejoicing in Heaven with late parents Dick & Trudy DeMoor, late sister Brenda DeMoor, and late nephew Daniel Terpstra. A celebration of life will be held by family and friends once social distancing has been relaxed, date to be determined & announced on Facebook.

Comments

“ Such a beautiful person. My thoughts and prayers are with her family. God bless you Jenny xo

Jeannine Jackson - April 24 at 08:14 PM

“ Sabrina DeMoor lit a candle in memory of Jennifer Hooper

Sabrina DeMoor - April 24 at 01:11 PM

“ Such a beautiful classy lady who will be sadly missed. You were loved by so many even those that knew you a short time could see your kindness, generosity and love for family and friends. You will be truly missed my friend. God bless you.

Maureen Lee - April 23 at 05:50 PM

“ So sorry to here about Jenny she was a very good person and her kids were her life. She will be missed by many she always had a smile on her face.She will be missed.Love to all Vanessa Schoonderbeek xo

Vanessa Schoonderbeek - April 23 at 04:53 PM

“ Working in the OR in Oshawa with Jennifer was wonderful always smiling ans laughing so was fun to work with a lovely lady indeed RIP Jennifer.

Gail Cannavan - April 24 at 11:58 AM

“ MY Jenny! (in a Forrest Gump voice). I worked in the OR with Jenny, and always teased her with this impersonation, it drove her crazy , but we would laugh and laugh. You were a beautiful person, and will be missed. Tina Greer

Tina - April 24 at 03:36 PM