Lee Delano Doran

It is with great regret that we announce the death of Lee Delano Doran, who died suddenly at Toronto General Hospital on December 20th/2018.

Lee was predeceased by his father Willis, and his mother Priscilla. Lee leaves to mourn his life partner, Ross Warren, his brother Philip Doran (Kathleen) and his children, Janet Bishop and Jared Doran, their children and grandchildren, along with his lifelong friend whom Lee considered his sister, Jane Bracy. Lee will also be missed by his many colleagues from his working career, and his friends from around the country, that are too numerous to mention.

Lee will be greatly missed by everyone he touched for his unique sense of humor, and his devotion to the people he loved.

It was Lee's wish that after passing away, he would be cremated without further ceremony.

Anyone wishing to make a donation in his name may do so at the Toronto Public Library, one of his favorite places to be which always offered him great inspiration, and comfort being around so many books that he loved.

“ The whole Tinkham Family were so sorry to hear of the loss of Lee. He was such a kind person and we all enjoyed his company so much just about three years ago when he came to Chicago. He got to meet all of our children and Bob and him spent lots of time going over old pictures and many childhood memories. I'm so thankful we had that special time with him. He will be missed by all of us.

“ There are people to whom respect and admiration is accorded/afforded by dint of their humanity...Lee was one of those. RIP.

“ I was deeply saddened to hear of Lee's passing. Lee has only ever been kind to me and felt me feel welcomed into his home and his life. His kind heart and sense of humour shone in his eyes.

I would not normally share a link in an obituary, but this song has been playing on my my mind since hearing the sad news.

The best way to honour our friends and loved ones who have passed is to remember them and cherish our memories.
