

Lindsay Veh (Laveh)

February 28, 2020

R.I.P Lindsay Veh (LAVEH). A talented artist, an inspiring teacher, and a dedicated and caring friend. Passed away peacefully on February 28th at Toronto Western hospital in the early morning. Lindsay was an avid reader, finishing upwards to six to ten books a week up until the last weeks of her life. She also had a great appreciation for jazz music and an open and curious nature and appreciation for the beauty that surrounded her. In the past six years as she adjusted to life living with a serious illness she demonstrated grace, strength and a gratitude for each day she lived and the kindness that came into her life through friends and caregivers that came closer. Lindsay had an infectious sense of humour and a great talent for encouraging her friends and taking joy in their accomplishments. We will miss your physical presence, but will continue to hold you in our hearts and watch for the signs of your spirit around us. A special thank you to Dr. Clara Whelan from the Sinai Health Palliative Care Team, Amanda Taylor, Social Worker at Philip Aziz Centre, Jennifer Rocha, Social Worker at Toronto Western Hospital, Dr. Paul Zhang friend and dentist, Sheri Ann Stranger, Cathy Ruebsamen Bennett Molnar, Kimberly Hunter and Sean Patenaude for their unfaltering friendship and support to Lindsay, and Workman Arts Staff and Members who enriched Lindsay's life through their shared love of art and art opportunities. Finally a very special thanks to Carol Taylor whose commitment to Lindsay from the first day she met her through her volunteerism with the Philip Aziz Centre was one of Lindsay's greatest sources of gratitude. Carol became Lindsay's friend, confidant, support at medical appointments, companion on outings and a true light of consistent compassion, positive energy and blessing in Lindsay's life the past three years. Lindsay is predeceased by her parents the Namaros and sister Denise.

Comments

“ I just found out Lindsay is no longer with us. She used to stay at my bed and breakfast in Rockwood. She loved sitting outside painting by the forest. We shared lots of good talks. I will always remember her with a smile.

Linda Smith - January 21 at 08:28 AM

“ we talked during art classes years ago and she had gotten a new boyfriend was changing name to laveh and it makes me sad she is gone..her paintings on hydro box for city of Toronto are close by where I live and see them oftenshe will be remembered by me and many

lisa faiz - March 12, 2020 at 08:45 PM

“ Community street art with the children. Great being a part of the event with Lindsay. May you Rest In Peace and continue to see the beauty in heaven.

lucy drumonde - March 09, 2020 at 02:14 PM

“ The brightness of her smile the curious nature of her spirit . She will be missed but not forgotten

paulette andria hamilton - March 07, 2020 at 11:29 AM

“ 14 files added to the album Memories Album

Anita Aenishaenslin - March 04, 2020 at 07:37 PM

“ 4 files added to the album Memories Album

sean patenaude - March 04, 2020 at 06:26 PM