

Paulette Camilleri (Gregory)

May 20, 2019

Camilleri, Paulette (Gregory) – Passed peacefully on Monday May 20th, 2019 at The Scarborough General Hospital after a hard fought battle with liver and kidney disease. Paulette, loving wife of Noel, proud mother of Jennifer and Jason, and beloved nanna to Brooke. Paulette, a Kingston native is survived by her brother Stanley, predeceased by her brother Fred, sister Helen, and parents Helen and Gordon Gregory. She will be greatly missed by her many aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, her extended family, and countless friends. Paulette touched everyone in her life, the definition of “cool mom” and the kindest, most compassionate, selfless, and sincere woman to anyone lucky enough to have met her.

The world needs more people like Paulette right now, and if anyone reading this is compelled to do something more than sending a reply to this post and is physically able to do so, then in Paulette’s memory, we encourage you to do something nice for someone without expecting anything in return, or volunteering your time somewhere, or simply call your own mothers or other loved ones... it will only make Paulette’s memory and her impact on us stronger. It was the way she lived and the way we want to honour her. Don’t feel helpless, feel helpful.

Paulette will be cremated and a Celebration of Life will be forthcoming. As per her wishes, she will be buried in Kingston with the rest of her family.

Comments

“ We were saddened to hear of the passing of our friend and former neighbour Paulette. We have fond memories of her at our annual Christmas Open House where she never disappointed in bringing the latest of her delicious hors d'oeuvres along with her warm smile. She was a wonderful member of our neighbourhood community and I know she will be missed by all.

We extend our deepest condolences to Noel, Jennifer & family and Jay.

Mary-Anne & Doug Dodge
(Uxbridge)

Douglas D Dodge - June 13, 2019 at 06:20 PM

“ Beautiful words about a Beautiful Person! Our street will not be the same without Mrs. C, but we will keep her in our hearts and be as helpful as possible, in keeping with her memory.

Debbie-Lynn Hoste - May 23, 2019 at 09:12 PM

“ Paulette Camilleri was my father the late Frederick Gregory and my Auntie Polly. Even though I grew up in Kingston and she in Scarborough when I did get to see her it was always very special to me. She was always doing crafts with me hence where I got all my crafting skills from. She was down to Kingston the very next day after my daughter was born and continued to be a major person in our lives as I became a single parent she was always to encourage me and teach me and guide me through my struggles with that.

Years later when I finally found a man who was great to me and my daughter, she once said to me I believe on the day I called her to tell her I was engaged. She said" you will have a good life with Paul, he is just like your dad my brother. He will always put you on high importance in his life and will never ever treat you with harm or without life and compassion.

I was diagnosed with MS after loosing my sight for almost 6 months, she was right about my husband. Between her and Paul they were my number one supporters and never gave up on me or their faith in God that I would never give up hope either. She helped me through the blindness and the paralysis and because of them two I was able to recover from most of that, now with still fighting with my MS I find myself asking what would my Aunt Polly want me to do.....?

Even though i wish she was still with us I know it was her time and that God needed her back for another important job for her to and for that I'm okay with his decision to take her back. I will continue my fight against MS knowing she was one of the people who gave me my strength and my motivation to keep moving forward and always be kind to myself and everyone around me. I will never stop loving you Aunt Polly and I'm extremely grateful for all you taught me and all your love and support you have given me. Now I make you a promise that I will continue to move forward and pass on your memories and messages of encouragement to each and everyone who wants my help and needs it. I will continue to help out our local legion in Bubba's name and your name !

Rest in Peace you great and beautiful woman !!!

Danielle Valiquette - May 23, 2019 at 07:41 PM

“ Gregory lit a candle in memory of Paulette Camilleri (Gregory)

gregory - May 23, 2019 at 06:03 PM