June 25, 1928 - February 4, 2021

Remedios Lopez Carreon was born on June 25, 1928 and died on February 4, 2021. She passed away peacefully at the age of 92. She leaves behind her four children, Adoracion Arceo, Herminia Sales, Lilia Liwanag, and Lauro Carreon Jr., as well as 8 grandchildren, and 4 great grandchildren. She was the head of payroll accounting at Wyeth Pharmaceuticals until moving to the United States with her husband Lauro to spend retirement with their family.

Remedios spent years in the United States helping out with grandchildren and great grandchildren before eventually settling down in Canada. She loved spending time with her family and caring for them with her cooking and making sure everyone felt loved and special. Coming home from school you could always know you were being thought of by the smell of one of your favorite meals as you walked in or discovering a dessert being saved for you. She would always find some way of making a point to have something special, from a treat she'd bring home after work to even just juice in the freezer to make shaved ice. And everyone would always try and repay the favor with her favorite chocolates. Her secret stash was never empty.

Remedios will be most remembered as a compassionate and supportive role model for all of her loved ones. She made sure her children and their children grew up knowing the value of education and making the right choices in life. Even her love of numbers would get passed down and eventually turn into accounting and engineering professions for later generations. Anyone who knew her could tell she was always prepared and had thought of everything. She could always be counted on to do what was needed. If a family was in need of an extra hand she and Lauro would move in and stay for as long as necessary. That was the best way she knew how to take care of her family, by being there for them. And she always was. She believed in and was proud of everyone. Her generosity of spirit and strength of mind and heart will always be remembered. She will be dearly missed but her family can take comfort in knowing she is now reunited with her loving husband Lauro.
