

Rosabella Varona Hinkson

March 23, 2020

With heavy hearts, we are sad to announce that our Mother, Rosabella Varona Hinkson, also known to family and friends as "Rose, Rhona, Rosa" passed away March 23, 2020, at the age of 82 from a stroke.

Rose was born on March 4, 1938 in St. John, St. Kitts, West Indies. She was a very proud woman and her strength was admirable. Rose was a Real Estate Agent in Kitchener-Waterloo for 20 years and won numerous awards, including maintaining her position on the Million Dollar Club.

Rose is survived by her husband Edric, her sisters Eileen Thomas-Holliday in England, Beverly Thomas-Williams in St. Kitts, Sylvannie Thomas-Francis in England, Isabel Thomas-Samuels in Toronto, Brother James Thomas in St. Kitts, her four children, Ivan, Deborah, Steven (Stacey), Carol (Chad) and her 14 grandchildren and 3 great grandchildren.

Due to COVID19 there will be a celebration of life announcement in a few months.

“ I will like to extend sincere condolences to the family on behalf of her sister Valence Leonnie Brown and family in Sint Eustatius. Aunt Rose as I called her used to be in contact with me via email and visited us along with Uncle Ed a few years back. It was a pleasure meeting them and spending time with them. You will be missed my dear aunty. Rest in eternal peace. Lots of love and strength to you the rest of the family.

“ Your mom was such a vibrant classy lady. I remember her always dressed to the nines with her beautiful nails, high heels and elegant suits. She was a force to be reckoned with and used to laugh at our teenage antics. The calypso in your basement, the stories at your dinner table, and the crazy Caribbean meals - like your mom telling me that pigstails were a delicacy! And you don't want to be poor like church rat! Lo! Oh wow. Great memories. Your mom will be remembered with a smile. I loved her and i will miss her. Xox hugs to you all. Love Jenn
