“ Sad to see Steve pass.

I played hockey with him for several years and was aware of his condition.

"Medium Steve" as we called him because there were 4 Steve's playing at the same time, I was "Little Steve" and the two others were Big Steve and XL Steve.

He certainly loved to come out and play shinny with the boys, and he tried his hardest with an unmatched determination to keep up with us.

Condolences to his family.

“ My dearest Chris & Family. Our hearts go out to you and the family. Wanda just sent me a picture of me and my sister with Steve when we visited with Aunt Stella & Uncle John, Yes, we loved to tease Steve because he was so shy. Chris, you were blessed with an angel when you met and married Steve. Your 49 years of marriage speaks for itself, we all only wish it had been longer. Your heart is heavy but your love for Steve will continue forever. Stay strong! Love, Cecilia & Richard Alexander

“ Grandpa,

Loved hockey,golf,football and many sports. He also liked watching TV. His favourite cereal was suger crisp. When i wanted to watch TV he was always watching it so i would steal the remote from him and then he would tickle me and take the remote back!

I will miss fishing with you and you teaching me how to golf.

I will miss you very much and think of you everyday!

Love your granddaughter

“ My deepest sympathy goes out to the family. Steve was not only extremely intelligent but one of the kindest and most reasonable man I have ever had the pleasure of knowing. I'm sure I speak for a lot of people when I say we were blessed to have had him in our lives.

To Christine and the boys. I know this is the darkest moment in your lifes. You had an amazingly close family with super strong values set by Steve at the helm. Please look to him in his passing to give you all strength.

May god bless you all.

“ Oh Steve I can't find the words they just refuse to come out. I can't let you go I'm sorry I just can't. There is such a big hole in my heart that will never ever heal. Normally I would call to you to ask for your help but you've been taken from this earth and I don't have the number.

What this obituary didn't mention was that you and Christine are just a couple of months short of your 50th anniversary. Yours was an epic love story, you loved each other so very, very much. I know that she is dying inside but because she is trying to help guide the boys and your grandchildren through this she is holding it together.

Steve I just wanted you to know that it's not a goodbye it's just a see you later. You my dear brother have left a hole in my heart that will never heal it's okay though because I will be there for Christine and the kids I promise you this for as long as I live...

From now on you will be that voice in my head saying Wanda don't let me down which I will try never to do so it's not goodbye it's see you soon.

Love always and forever your kid sister Wanda...

“ So sorry for your loss Christine. Hold on to his cherished, cordial, neighbourly ways. Always a hello and a friendly chat while tending to his garden and yard, working in the garage with his son's and friends, enjoying his early weekend gospel music or breakfast with you under the gazebo on sunny days. We too will remember how Steve so enjoyed those simple pleasures and how he shared his time with his family every Wednesday and Sunday evening for pizza dinners on his patio with his son's and grandchildren. Sincere condolences from Jim & Cathy.
