“ Susan has been a dear friend for over 20 years. I was shocked and deeply saddened to learn of her passing. I will miss her kindness, her warmth, her wisdom, and her support. Regrettably, I never met her family, but she spoke of them often and with affection. My sincere condolences to all of you. Please let me know about any memorial service that is planned, as well as where I can visit her to pay my respects. Thank you.

“ My sincerest condolences to the family. I knew Susan while working together at Lamberton P.S. Teaching and education was her passion.

I recall how fondly she spoke of her family, and celebrated with me the birth of my own children. She was thoughtful and supportive during some really trying times, especially over the years with the passing of my mother, and then father. I cannot stress enough how I will never forget this kindness that she showed me, my husband and my children.

I was deeply saddened to hear of her passing and my thoughts are with you.

“ In this sorrowful time, I would like to extend my deepest sympathies to the Wrabko Family. I had the pleasure of working with Susan at Lamberton P.S. She was dedicated to the students and families of our community. Susan was such an avid reader and always passed on her books to others to enjoy as well.

“ My family and I knew Susan professionally as Ms. Wrabko (aka The Pink Lady) because she was the Principal at my son's school - Lamberton Public School. Ms. Wrabko was always very positive, extremely passionate about student learning, cared deeply about the staff and students and highly encouraged parent engagement.

My son remembers that she loved to wear the colour pink! I remember her as a great educator!

Rest in peace!

“ Dear Sharon and the Wrabko family,

I was so sorry to read about the passing of Susan in the Saturday Star. It is so hard to lose a sibling and someone you love. I did not know Susan the way I knew you Sharon, but I will never forget her. Like Susan I was a Principal, albeit high school, and the last time I saw her was at a retirement luncheon where I, and others as retirees, were being honored. After the festivities were over Susan came up to me and introduced herself and said something that I will never forget. Although I cannot share this private conversation I will always remember what she said to me and I was so appreciative of it.

I want you to know that I am thinking of you and the entire Wrabko family at this difficult time. I hope that you have wonderful memories of times spent together that will help to sustain you during this sad time.

With deepest sympathy,

“ Susan was indeed an avid reader...also very knowledgeable in history, music, cultural norms and literacy in general. When she was interested in something, it was a challenge for her to learn more and more. She adored children and her nieces and nephews. Having a strong mind meant having strong opinions. She advocated for many who were less fortunate than her. Will miss our Windfield breakfast meetings, our lengthy email exchanges and our book club meal extarvaganzas! Rest in peace, my friend.
