

Adella Pierre

November 11, 2024

In loving memory of Adella Pierre.

An intelligent mind, thoughtful and kindhearted. You were one of a kind; your spirit continues. May you rest in peace, knowing you were loved.

Adella will be lovingly remembered by her mother Lenora, siblings Brian, Tony, Bernadette and Ezra. She will be missed by her nieces and nephews Anthony, Nathan, Sianna, Sage and Jeremy, her aunt Lillian, and sister-in-law Rema and additional family and friends.

Rest in peace, dear one, so kind,

In hearts and thoughts, you're entwined.

Though we part, we're not apart,

For love endures within each heart.

“ i think of you often. I miss you. I'm sorry I didn't get to spend more time with you when you were alive and that will be one of my regrets. You were an amazing soul. You taught me so much. We laughed so much. I enjoyed cooking with you. I know life didn't deal you a fair hand and you had a lot to deal with, and you didn't feel supported or seen by some who should have loved you fiercely and unconditionally. But I saw you. I believed you and I wished I could have helped you. I will cherish you always. Rest easy my cous. Know that you will not be forgotten.

“ Today, I say goodbye to an incredible woman – my Auntie Adella , who was so much more than family. She was a friend, a mentor, and a light in so many lives. Her kindness and laughter could fill any room, and her heart had space for everyone she met. She taught me about strength, generosity, and the importance of loving deeply.

Though she's no longer with us, I'll carry her lessons and love with me forever. I'm grateful for every moment we shared, every laugh, every hug, and every story. She touched so many lives, and I know her spirit will continue to live on in all of us who loved her.

Rest in peace, Auntie Adella . We'll hold you in our hearts always.

“ She was my oldest niece and I spoke to her a few days before this happened and I will miss her so much and may she rest in peace.
