

Mr. Alan Idris Davies

September 16, 2017

Alan Idris Davies was born March 31, 1941 in Tir-Y-Berth, a small mining town in South Wales, U.K. After a period of time living in Yorkshire, England, his family returned to Wales where Al completed his education with a HNC in Chemistry. After the death of his father he emigrated to Toronto Canada in 1970 to join his childhood friend, followed eventually by his sister Pat and mother Olive. He worked in the Lab at Mobil Canada as a chemist, in purchasing, then on to many different positions with Mobile and subsequently Valspar Paint as Tech support in Saudi Arabia and Argentina until his final posting in Tech Service at Steel Car in Hamilton. He had a love of life, intelligence and humour, not to mention rugby, snooker and golf. He is survived by his sister Pat who returned to Wales after their mother died. He will be remembered fondly by his lifelong friend Brian Plummer, wife Judy and daughters Sarah and Amanda Plummer and his long time friends Ag and Andy Dougan, and Nancy Goldsmith his who took care of him tirelessly for the last year of his life as well as many others. He succumbed to Prostate Cancer long after he was expected to under the fine care of the nurses, Doctor and Chaplin at Providence Health Care Center on Saturday September 16, 2017. He will be missed. There will be a Memorial celebration of Al's life held at the Brass Taps Pub (one of Al's favourites), located at the corner of the Danforth and Logan in Toronto, Ontario, on Sunday October 22nd, 2017, from 2:30 to 4:30pm. Please join us in saying farewell to a very special person.

Previous Events

Celebration of Life

OCT 22. 2:30 PM - 4:30 PM (ET)

Brass Taps Pub
493 Danforth Avenue
Toronto, ON (CA)