

Alex Pierobon

December 22, 2022

Alex Pierobon passed on December 22, 2022 after his fight against cancer, at the age of 31. Though young, Alex lived a full life. He was a son, brother, husband, friend, great businessman, cyclist, adventurer and nature lover. He was adventurous and traveled to parts of the world many of us have never traveled in our lifetime; his favorite trip was Indonesia for its culture; he got engaged in Spain. He climbed Mount Temple, Alberta, an extremely difficult trek. In August, he rode 100km for the Northern Pass raised awareness for cancer screening and supporting cancer research. He married the love of his life, Ashley, in a beautiful beach ceremony in October. Alex was a caring and generous soul, always thinking of others up until the day of his passing.

He leaves behind his wife Ashley Luppe, parents Wendy and Oliver Pierobon, sister Jessica Pierobon (Yunis Mayasi), in-laws Faye and Ralph Luppe, and brother-in-law Chris Luppe.

“ Alex, myself and Connor Trendov had the privilege of climbing Mount Temple together on September 8, 2019. The difficult 16km, 1,850m elevation hike was a spontaneous trip done on virtually no sleep. We saw a beautiful sunrise, swam in Moraine Lake, and were blessed with clear conditions and fantastic views at the top (6th highest mountain in Alberta). The great company made the day extra special.

Alex also played hockey with the Axemen, we enjoyed golf and skiing together during his stint in Alberta. Alex was always a stand up human being, worked hard, took care of himself. I am devastated to hear of his passing and give Ashley and his family my best through this very difficult time. It is simply not fair that Alex is no longer with us, but life does not always have coherent explanations for everything.

I love you Alex, rest in peace.

I met Alex, through one of his colleagues when he worked with Pepsi. My friend and Alex were good friends - so Alex joined us for a Cottage weekend. Alex's personality immediately clicked with our adventurous, jovial nature. He captured that weekend on his dslr, which he expressed his interest in highly.

Alex came off as very ambitious, with a lust for life.

I maintained my relationship with Alex, just checking in once and a while. When diagnosed Alex always expressed a positive attitude towards me.

May you rest easy Alex, and thank you for blessing us with your smile. My heart goes out to his wife, family. I wish you well throughout this time.

“ We are so very sorry to hear about Alex. We had a great conversation with him in August where he shared many life stories. It was very apparent that he truly loved life and had a great passion for the outdoors. We are very thankful that we had the opportunity to sit with him that day. Our thoughts are with Ashley and the family at this difficult time. He will be missed. RIP Alex. Lorraine and Carlos Santo.
