“ Dear Debra, Brenda, & Family,
Our deepest condolence goes out to you at this time of much sorrow.
I am just finding out about Alice's passing today when I went to pick my son up at school. One of the other Mom's asked me if it was true!
When school started back this past year & I didn't see Alice at her crosswalk, I had to ask a few other crosswalk people if they knew anything about why your Mom was off. I was told she broke her leg, I thought to myself, thank you Lord for not being the C word again!
Your Mom was one of a kind, a gentle soul that had a heart of gold! I will miss & think of her often, & see her ear to ear smile saying,
The weather is not bad yeh! How she loved watching the children & watching over them too! We will miss her this Halloween...I can see her now sitting in her chair giving my son extra candy...as I am sure she did with all the children.
Our thoughts are with you... 🙏🥰

“ For more years than I can remember we have talked gardens, neighbours and just about everything else.
I always looked for you on the corner helping the kids cross and now it will be were I remember you most.
The picture is perfect. That big smile was always on your face you will be missed in the 'hood Elise.
So sorry to Deb and the rest of the family
