Allan, a US army veteran proudly served his country which included deployment to Vietnam.

Allan's time spent in the military provided the foundation for a career in correctional services.

Allan's corrections career began when he was hired to work at Leavenworth, a medium security penitentiary located in Kansas USA.

Allan's correctional career continued upon his return to Canada where he worked at the Toronto Don Jail and would eventually retire from his home institution The Toronto East Detention Centre.

Bull Dog as he was referred to by fellow officers will be remembered by his work family as being a loyal, solid, dependable and fair officer. Bull was highly respected by his peers and inmates alike.

Bull Dog will also be remembered for his wicked sense of humour, legendary pranks, inappropriate behaviour and his endless desire to have fun and make the best of things.
