

Ana Lisa Rivera

February 12, 2019

Ana Lisa Rivera passed away on February 12th, 2019.

She symbolized child hood innocence, selflessness and a sense duty.

Her zest for new frontiers always made me smile and her greatest gift was a natural ease to play with children.

Lisa's love, especially for her nephews and nieces was profound and unqualified.

She loved spending time with them and revelled in their accomplishments as well as hurt with their sorrows. She was always there for family and friends in her special way.

I hope her genuine goodness is a lesson everyone.

I am thankful to have been part of her life and so proud to call her my cousin, my sister, my friend, my family. You will never be forgotten.

“ Pathos

*Who could have divined,
Who could have fathomed,
The weariness in your soul?
Not from the flashes of your smiles,
Not from the gales of laughters emanating from your “BE”-ing!*

*Who could take the route that left no trace nor shadow through the Labyrinthine way, got lost , with No Exit?
Who wouldn't get weary?*

*And believing your kindreds won't comprehend,
The reason that help you could not besought
So everything was just for naught,
Was that your ultimate thought?*

*The solution was to fling into the abyss
For you to find some peace.*

*NOW , SPREAD YOUR WINGS , dear Lisa , and
BE FREE!
BE FREE!!!*

On a wing & a Pray'r,

Your loved ones
