

Mrs. Anna Gwendolen Bell

August 7, 2010

Peacefully Saturday August 7, 2010 at Sunnybrook Hospital, Palliative Care Unit after a brave struggle with lung cancer and diabetes. Predeceased by husband, James (Jimmy), sister, Jean Smith, brothers Ken and Raymond Kerr. Survived by daughter Carol, her husband John and adored grandson, James. Gwen was a loving and devoted wife, mother, grandmother and friend, who lived her life with a happy positive spirit, which she showered on everyone, who knew her. Her good nature was infectious and her strong belief in finding the silver lining in every situation led her to overcome polio, learn to live with diabetes and enjoy every moment of every day. Her family and friends will miss her dearly. A very special thanks to all the doctors, nurses and staff at Sunnybrook Palliative Care K1 East. A memorial service to celebrate her life will be held Thursday August 12, 2010 at The Manor (Bob Rumball Centre), 2395 Bayview Avenue, Toronto at 11:30 a.m. In lieu of flowers, donations to the Sunnybrook Hospital Foundation or the Canadian Diabetes Association would be appreciated.

“ Hi James,
Thank you so much for your thoughts and memories of mom. She was always curious, but never nosey. There but not intrusive. Loved her for that. We had many great times growing up on 59th.

Mom lived the last year and a half here in Toronto, which was a blessing because she was able to know her grandson better, whom she adored and I was able to advocate for her as she became ill. It was great to be so close to her.

I hope you are doing well. And thank you very much for taking the time to acknowledge my mom.

I still see Heather and Bernadette as often as possible.

Great friends never go away, they continue to intersect your life.
Thank you.

“ To Carol and your family, please accept my deepest condolences on the loss of your dear mother. I have fond memories of Anna and her kind and caring manner... she was always to easy going with us kids no matter how much mischief we were up to.

Warmest regards,
