“ We were saddened to hear of the sudden passing of Anna. I use to bowl with Anna and I also golfed with her and her sisters. She always had that cute smile, and a warm hug. Always friendly and enjoyed people and had great neighbours.. She enjoyed having a yard sale, because she would donate the money she made to cancer. She enjoyed her barbecues with her family and friends. Always kind and caring. She will now be greeted at Heaven's door, by her loved ones that have gone before her. I always remember her winning the longest drive's at our golf tournaments. She could sure hit a ball. "We will miss you on the links my friend". Love : Rosy and Bob Langstaff xox

“ I'm thankful James and Asia had the opportunity to share the last leg of life with you and that you helped Scott and I realize everything that was most important to us. Rest In Peace, Grandma. You're with B now.

“ The sudden passing of Anna came as a shock. Anna and I had become quite close after years of being part of a regular routine through her daughter Tina.

I was able to get to know Anna more than most. All of her virtues and faults combined... I liked her a lot.

We will all miss your “feistiness” and your love for family and friends. After I accept that you have gone ahead... I will share some good stories and the plans we were making with Tina.

Right now it's hard to believe you are gone.
