In Loving Memory of Anna-Louise Elborn (1943– 2026)

With deep love and profound sadness, our family announces the passing of Anna-Louise Elborn on April 11, 2026. Her life was marked by creativity, service, music, and unwavering faith. Born Kathleen Donna Tucker on May 10, 1943, she spent her earliest months in the care of Children's Aid before being adopted by Bernard and Helen Pickering, who renamed her Anna-Louise and nurtured her artistic and musical gifts. From sketching with her father—who painted alongside members of the Group of Seven—to earning her Associate of the Royal Conservatory of Toronto (ARCT) in piano, the arts were woven through her entire life. Professionally, Anna-Louise worked for several Toronto and Whitby law firms, becoming a Law Clerk and Notary Public, and later served with the Ontario Ministry of Revenue/Finance until her retirement. She also volunteered with the Durham Regional Police Auxiliary Unit for 26 years, rising to Auxiliary Inspector, serving on the Honour Guard, and being named Auxiliary Officer of the Year. Music was her lifelong passion. She sang with the Bill White Singers, County Town Singers, The Notables, Harmony Road Baptist Church Choir, and the DRPS Choir—often as a soprano soloist. Her voice was a gift she shared generously. Since 1992, she served faithfully at Harmony Road Baptist Church, where she was baptized in 1993. Over the years she served as Church Clerk, Deaconess, worship leader, committee member, event organizer, and a tireless helper behind the scenes for countless ministries. Her faith shaped everything she did. Anna-Louise was elegant, witty, organized, and endlessly generous. She loved her family fiercely and was proud of each one of them.

She is lovingly remembered by her children: David Moore (Kelly), Brian Moore and Paula Moore. She was a cherished grandmother to: Justin Moore (Hope) and Colin Moore (Carter Feltham).

She was a beloved great-grandmother to: Rachael Spearman and Lynken Moore.

She was also a loving sister to: Carl Pickering, and aunt to Shannon Pickering and Talisman Pickering. Her legacy is one of service, music, faith, and love. We rejoice that she is now in the presence of her Lord, and we hold onto the hope of seeing her again.

“ I went to public school with Louise, we were great friends but we lost touch for a few years but became close together while working and had our first sons just days apart she always said she never told me about her third baby on the way because she was afraid it would be a another boy. We again lost touch as we eventually moved to Saskatchewan but her name popped up on the web site for class mates with her picture and she basically looked the same as public school. I answered and we exchanged cards and kept in touched for many years. It was like old times. I will miss her she was a friend and we would talk on line almost like we were in the same room. I regret not knowing she was in Oshawa likely we lived in Pickering and I worked at the hospital in Ajax and knowing now all that I wish we could have connected then. I will miss here! So sorry to for her family I know she was a great Mom and loved her children very much also all the grand children. They have lost a great friend!

Louise and I shared a friendship as sisters in the Lord at Harmony Road Baptist Church and along with Margaret Fountain spent lots of time together, lots of lunches and shopping trips together! That's where the Blue Jacket came from! I moved away but our connection was always there! I cherish our many messages over the past 4 years and especially my birthday card received just last week!

Louise loved her children and they were her treasures! Loved the Police choir, singing at harmony and serving on the many committees therein!

Louise will be missed but we know where she is, praising Our Lord and Saviour! 🙏🙏🙏
