“ Kim and Family, I am so sorry to hear about your mother. Such a great loss in our lives to lose a mother as I well know. I never met your mom but you did share stories with me about her. She sounded like a fun lady to be around. My heart is with you and yours.

“ I have known Anne for many many years ,I first met Anne when she moved in nextdoor to me .Our kids were young just becoming badass teenagers .We hit it off and became drinking buddies . and friends .We helped each other through hard times ,bad times .and kid times,Through the years we would loose touch .then get in touch and get together again I moved out west but we still kept in touch we wrote letters (that was the days people actually wrote letters)to each other and called .when I moved back to Ontario we got together again just picked up where we left off.Went through the years of meeting up at our favourite watering hole . We got older and mellowed out both doing our own thing .this new age of texting we kept in touch got together when we could .I am so glad got to spend weekend with Anne before she went back in hospital.We had some laughs talked about our foolish days and the future .She was not going to give up wanted to fight this cancer .Why is this cancer still taking so many good people .Your pain is gone now .My you R.I.P .I will keep my promise to you .Good bye my friend .I will think of you often .Gone way to soon x0x0x

Kim and family. A great sadness has come upon me when I heard the news. I have a void now in my heart. Sisters we were, but drifted apart in the later years. And I am sorry for that, as by the sounds of her friends, she was a wonderful person. Anne is blessed though, with a wonderful family. As I look at our childhood photos, I can see we had a great life, thanks to our loving parents. Wishing you peace and love at this difficult time and may your memories be everlasting. Aunt Monique
