

Antonio Custodio Cabaldon

March 7, 2026

With heavy hearts, we say goodbye to our beloved Grandpa, Antonio Custodio Cabaldon. He was a strong and steady presence in our family — a man who could be stern when needed, but whose humor and easygoing nature always brought smiles to those around him.

Grandpa had a way of taking care of everyone. Whether through his advice, his presence, or the simple comfort of his warm smile, he made people feel safe and supported. Beneath his strong exterior was a deeply kind soul who cared endlessly for his family and those lucky enough to know him.

His laughter, his stories, and his gentle spirit will always be remembered.

While it hurts deeply to see him gone, we take comfort in knowing he is finally free from pain and at peace. We also find peace in imagining him reunited with Grandma — together again after all this time.

Antonio leaves behind a legacy of strength, kindness, and love that will live on in all of us. He will be deeply missed, but never forgotten.
