“ Close to 40 years ago, I met a brilliant guitarist and singer and had the privilege of playing with him in a kick butt band, called Pilot. For all the years since, I marveled at his warm, caring and open heart, not mention his gifted playing. His friendship was a blessing. The tragedy of his early death will stay with all of us who loved Arch, forever.

“ *To the family and friends of Archie
Please accept our sincere sympathy on the passing of Archie.
Archie will always be remembered by our family as a talkative upbeat funloving guy who was a great friend and an awesome guitar player. Dad (John Leslie) always said that Archie was a better guitar player than Eric Clapton and we knew it was true. We would like to think that Archie is in heaven jammin right now!
"Like a chicken on a Junebug" Rest in Peace Archie

“ My best friend, my brother " Archie:"

I would like to thank you, for all the great times, we spent over the past 40 years.

The bands that we played in such as Plot, Night Beat, Split Shift and Tortes Flats and many pick up gigs we did together, were magic.

Archie made them magic because of his wonderful talent. His caring generosity and sense of humour showed no bounds. He always looked for the good in people and that was another of his talents.

Thanks for all the stories of Brendalee, The Shadow lake 8 and all the musicians he came to know and love. I feel that I know them all without meeting them.

My friend I know that you are feeling the Loving hand of God.

You will always be treasured in Donnalee and my heart.

May God truly bless your soul.

Your Friend "brother" Peter Weller

“ It is with mixed emotions that I share these thoughts with you, happy that Archie has gone to a dimension of everything that has been, everything that is, and everything that will be, yet saddened by the thought of never seeing or talking to him again in this world. "the Barnes" as we affectionally dubbed him was and is only one of a handful of the definition of a true man that I had the good fortune to meet and become friends with. He loved life! He loved his family, his wife and son, his friends, and his music. He was as gentle as a kitten, if threatened could be as ferocious as a lion, always stood up for what he believed in and never complained about anything. I guess if he did have a fault it was the fact that he never seemed to be able to talk enough!!!!!! The next time you look up into the night sky and see a star twinkle, that would be "the Barnes" Cheers Arch! Your friend, Danny “ Archie was our brother. He was a good and honest man and a loving father. He loved his family in Oklahoma and was looking forward to the day he could come home again. He loved and lived for music and playing his guitar.

He had a big heart and a laugh as big as an Oklahoma sky. He loved life and leaves behind many friends who go back to his days at Horace Mann Elementary, Central Junior High and College High School in Bartlesville, Oklahoma.

There is a tribute page on Face called "Remembering Archie Barnes" where his fellow musicians and longtime friends and family members can leave their thoughts and memories and view and post photos of him and also connect with one another.

It is with deep sadness that we say goodbye from a distance.

*We miss you Archie. Rest in Peace.
