“ Dear Arlene and Danielle,
A person that departs from this earth never truly leaves, for they are still alive in our hearts and minds, through us, they live on. Please accept my condolences, In this tough time in your life, may our friendship, sympathy and heartfelt condolences bring you comfort. He was like a brother to me and I miss him, especially his long texts, they didn't always make sense but I will miss them, that's how I knew he was feeling ok. He will not be forgotten.

“ To Art's family I was sorry to hear that he passed. I have not seen Art for many years but I have many fond memories of the times we had together when we were young and foolish. Ray and I, Wes and Diane and Art and Arlene going to the disco, playing cards at June's so much fun. Such good memories. In the end all we have are are memories. I hopt you find comfort remembering your good times together.

Take care,
Monica Johnston.

“ I shared this on my own personal Facebook but thought I would share here too. Rest In Peace uncle Art. I will always remember how full of love you always were and anytime I ever saw you, no matter what the circumstance, the first words out of your mouth always being "hi sweetie" followed by a big hug and kiss. You were a special man and I'm glad you're not suffering anymore. hug and kiss until we meet again.

Aunt Arlene and Danielle: my deepest sympathies to both of you during this very difficult time. My prayers and love are with you always.
