

Ms. Barbara Buckley nee Mulveney

July 23, 2013

Born in Toronto on Friday, August 24, 1934. Her father, Charles Mulveney and grandfather, Robert Last Mulveney owned and operated Mulveney's Remedies on Ossington Avenue in Toronto during the early 1900's. She enjoyed being a Life Guard at Sunnyside Pool in her teen years. Barbara was a beautiful woman and was an excited contestant in the Miss Toronto Pageant. Her favorite memories were of spending time at Balm Beach in the summer and of being mother to her four girls'. She had a generous heart and was a former foster parent and "mommy" to many beloved pets over the years. Since 1998 she lived with her daughter, Linda and family, first in Ajax and then since 2003, in Oshawa. Our mom was admitted to Lakeridge Health Oshawa on June 22nd with her health deteriorating. She passed peacefully while sleeping in the early hours of July 23, 2013. She will be deeply missed and forever in our hearts. Loving mother of Debbie Chan, Linda Buckley-Boyd (Dan Godin), Glenda Nichols (Doug), Cathy Hornung (Rick). Pre-deceased by former husband Glenn E. Buckley. Cherished grandmother of Michael, Justin and Julian; Stephen and Curtis; Kristina, John, Brian and David; Jessica and Jeffrey. Special Great Grandmother of Jennifer, Ethan and Mackayla. Pre-deceased by her brother Ralph. Survived by brothers' Ronald, Charles (Marion) and dear sister-in-law Eleanor. She will also be missed by her niece and nephews. A special thank you to We Care Home Health Services and their dedicated P.S.W.'s, especially Sharon Williams who was Mom's primary worker. Gratitude to all of the staff at Hillside Estates Day Program who always showed their care and concern. Also thanks to the staff at L.H.O. 7C and nurse Sandra who was so sensitive and comforting in providing such sad news to us. A private family service will be held.

Tribute Wall

LI

“ It's been a while Mom. I love this picture of you, it really captures your beauty and happy, generou as spirit. Jennifer still talks of you and thinks of you and I find myself looking at your empty chair and wishing you were still here. Just wanted you to know that your spirit lives on.

Linda

Linda - August 25, 2015 at 12:40 PM

GN

“ Glenda Nichols lit a candle in memory of Ms. Barbara Buckley nee Mulveney

Glenda Nichols - August 13, 2013 at 01:02 PM

DC

“ Daughter Debbie Chan lit a candle in memory of Ms. Barbara Buckley nee Mulveney

Daughter Debbie Chan - July 30, 2013 at 10:46 AM

DC

It's been one week Mom/Grandma/Great Grandma since we are missing you. This candle burns bright with our love for you. Always in our thoughts, forever in our memories. With Much Love - Debbie, Michael, Justin, Julian & Ethan xoxoxo

Debbie Chan - July 30, 2013 at 10:52 AM

CR

“ Cathy & Rick lit a candle in memory of Ms. Barbara Buckley nee Mulveney

Cathy & Rick - July 28, 2013 at 06:30 PM

CJ

“ Cathy, Rick, Jessica & Jeff lit a candle in memory of Ms. Barbara Buckley nee Mulveney

Cathy, Rick, Jessica & Jeff - July 28, 2013 at 06:26 PM

LB

“ Linda Boyd lit a candle in memory of Ms. Barbara Buckley nee Mulveney

Linda Boyd - July 26, 2013 at 04:14 PM

LB

*I lit this red candle for you Mom because I remember it being your favourite colour. You always looked so good when you wore red and were so stylish over the years. I smile when I think of all the hats you enjoyed wearing and you did look great in them! I like to think this red candle has a cinnamon scent to it because that would be the scent you would like. I have bought a special tealight holder in your memory. I will bring it home and wil remember you everytime I light it. I am missing you alot right now so I may have to wait a little while before I can write on your tribute page.
Love you forever.*

Linda Boyd - July 26, 2013 at 04:25 PM