It is with great sadness that the family of Barbara Jane Nease announces her passing in her 84th year on December 27, 2012 at Toronto East General Hospital. Predeceased by her parents, John Scott and Esther McGregor; husband, Stuart; sister, Martha Acheson; and daughter, Stephanie Pettigrew Anderson. Survived by her children, Scott (Rosa), Chris (Diane), Robyn (Mark) and Tim (Linda); grandchildren, William (Lina) and Eric (Kamilla); Olivia and Alec; Jared and Evan Pszczonak; Maranda Klapowich (Jason), Andrew and Emily (Vito); and Ian (Caitlyn), Mitchell and Timarie (Curtis) Pettigrew; great-grandchildren, Quentin Radic, Jacob and Dylan Klapowich; and Owen Pettigrew; Karolina Radic; and longtime partner, Robert van der Meulen. Barbara was not only her family's beloved and supportive Mother, much loved Nana and Great-Nana; she also was a social worker, receiving her Master's degree in 1965 and, later in life, a real estate agent. Barbara spent many happy summers with her family at her cottage on Haliburton Lake. She was an accomplished bridge player and competed regularly for many years with Robert. Above all, she was a very wise woman who provided guidance to many people throughout her life. She will be forever loved and missed by her family. Many thanks to the palliative care unit at TEGH. Private arrangements have taken place. A celebration of Barbara's life will be held on January 19th, 2013 at 11:00 a.m. at Riverside United Church, Windsor, Ontario. Flowers gratefully declined.
