

Barry Peter Iaci

December 12, 2025

September 8, 1958 - December 12, 2025

Barry will be deeply missed by his sisters, Gloria Iaci and Claudia Rozum (Charlie). He loved his nieces, China Flanagan and Katie Jarema, and nephews, Derek Flanagan and Charlie Rozum Jr. He was also blessed with eight great-nieces and nephews and shared an especially close bond with his great-niece, Jasmine Flanagan. He was preceded in death by his beloved partner, Gil Baylor and his parents, Peter and Katie Iaci. He was a dear friend of Chris Hansen and Scott Fordham. He will be dearly missed by Chris's family.

He was a very happy child who grew into a man known for his kindness, generosity, and willingness to help others. A bright light in the lives of everyone he surrounded himself with, his infectious laughter brought joy to many. His daily sayings on Facebook will be missed. Fiercely protective of those he loved, he was equally loving. He loved loudly and lived loudly, inspiring others by being authentically himself in every way.

May his memory be a blessing and his spirit a guiding light in the hearts of those who loved him.

Tribute Wall

CH

“ We will miss seeing you at our family BBQ's they just won't be the same without you being there.

Christopher Hansen - December 19, 2025 at 12:36 PM

CH

“ My deepest thoughts and condolences. You will be dearly missed Barry. You left this world way to soon, and heaven is lucky to have gained an angel as great as you. You have earned your wings and rest my dear friend.

Chris Hansen - December 19, 2025 at 11:56 AM