“ *Nan,
I asked for the words to encapsulate you
An ode to my Nanny Black I would do
Bright vibrant colours flashed through my eyes
Each and every outfit perfectly accessorized
Your laughing face tilted back
Preceding always an affectionate little smack
Snapping your painted nails in the air
So full of joy whenever music was there
The light in your eyes that would always greet me
That one of a kind smile
With the beautiful space between your teeth
Your strength, your wit, your love
I'll forever carry with me
And so many memories that I was blessed to receive
I know you are dancing wherever you are
I know that now I just have another star
To wish upon, to light my way
So I'm sure he's showing up soon Nan
Now that you've got extra say.*

I love you and miss you.

If our friendship could be painted in your artistic gift, it would be a painting of sunshine, laughter, wit and a classy lady who told us like it was and left us always with a smile.

WE'LL MISS YOU BEA. xxxxxxxxxxxxxx

“ I remember baking in the kitchen and Friday night dinners. It was good. Nanny taught me how shop, put an outfit together and what it meant to lunch like a lady. I remember when her shade of Revlon lipstick was discontinued and we tried to find the next best shade! She always greeted me a smile and "hello,beautiful" and she meant it. She is wrapped in who I am and in my heart for ever. Peace Nanny. I love you, Genny. xoxo
