

Ms. Brenda Mae McQuat

August 28, 2015

McQuat, Brenda Mae (née Hajdukovic), affectionately referred to as 'B', passed away unexpectedly on Friday, August 28, 2015. Friends and family surrounded her in death as they always had in life. Born to Nikola (deceased) and Anna Hajdukovic (née Gatto) on September 3, 1959 she is lovingly remembered by her mother Anna, brother Nick and his wife (Debbie), sister Tina, four nieces (Tiffany, Trish, Katie & Becky), two nephews (Chris & Scott), one great nephew (James), two great-nieces (Asia & Lexi), and Sondra Whitehouse-Jones. She will also be missed by a slew of so many family members and friends that their names would fill enough pages to write a book; she will be forever missed for her verve for life, her infectious laugh, and her dedication to family. In nostalgic style, and because she loved to get family and friends together as often as possible, her Celebration of Life will be held at General Sikorski Hall in Oshawa (1551 Stevenson Rd N) on September 9, 2015 between 4:00 p.m. & 7:00 p.m. Visitation 4:00 p.m. Presentation 5:30 p.m.

“ My wife and I met Brenda through buying and selling our house 7 years ago. She came highly recommended and when we met I said to my wife she's definitely the right person. She said how do you know, and I replied I don't, I just know there's something about the way she carries herself. Well I couldn't have been more right about Brenda. She's one of the most dependable, dedicated and determined people I've ever met. It took 8 months to sell our house and find a new one as the housing market crashed in 2008 just as we went to sell. She kept re-assuring us, "I won't quit until I find a buyer and until you find a house you are completely happy with". She kept us from losing hope and our minds. She stuck to her guns and her word and somehow pulled it off. Not once did Brenda show up other than happy with a pleasant demeanor. It takes a special person to pull that off after 8 months. We got on well with her and she even invited us to her mother's charity day each year, at her Mom's house, with fun, games, contests and food. Oh the coconut cream pie, recommended by Brenda, oh so good. Every year Brenda would send us well wishes at Christmas too. It was nice to get that in the mail, to remember what a wonderful experience we had. I'm glad we picked her. Brenda was very professional, caring, and just a really nice person to be around. Our condolences to her family, friends and co-workers she will be missed. Paul & Tina Bradshaw

“ *Dear Anna, Tina, Nick and family:
Thank you for this link. I was able to read the obituary which was lovely. It's been a long time since I have seen Brenda so memories of her would go back to the days when she was a teenager. I remember she learned a new dance and was showing us some of the moves and laughing. She was a beautiful girl. So sorry for your loss.
