

Brian Fitzpatrick

March 6, 2023

January 1, 1945 – March 6, 2023

Brian, aka husband, “dear”, dad, “Papa”, the brother, uncle, father-in-law, brother-in-law, boss, tennis partner, “tax guy”, “Mr. Fizz”, and friend. Whoever he was to you, he told it like it was and you respected him for it. He was the person anyone could talk to, a generous and devoted man who never quit and helped so many without expecting anything in return - but a case of Labatt 50 or Molson Canadian was always appreciated and never refused. He was proud of the family he raised and had so much joy in hearing about their accomplishments. His unique character, big personality and a love of storytelling made us all better to have known him. Practical and determined right to the end, we will forego a traditional funeral and hold a celebration of life at a future date so family and friends can gather and share stories together in his honour.

He will be sadly missed and remembered by his wife Nickie/Nicole of 57 years, children Sean (Laurie) and Julie (Daniel), grandchildren Taylor, Matthew, Taryn, and Evan, and his siblings Stephanie, Patricia, Declan (late Donna) and predeceased by Deirdre (Phil). As an expression of condolence, the family would appreciate donations to Sunnybrook or University Health Network Foundations. May he rest in peace.

“ One of our favourite memories of Brian Fitz is from July of 2009. Brian and Nickie, and Donna and Declan came out west to Calgary. During that time, we drove the magnificent Banff-Jasper Highway, guys in one car and girls in the other, for a visit in the mountains in Jasper. Steve had a reunion golf event there with some people he used to work with and one of whom, Dave Roxborough, turned out to be a friend of Brian’s from long ago back in his Montreal days. What a neat coincidence that was! We saw much wildlife, even (rare) mountain goats, along with the bighorn sheep and some elk. There was hiking and sightseeing, and it was a wonderful time which we all remember with great fondness. During our regular visits to Toronto, there were many meals shared with Brian and Nickie and we grew to think of them as our family too. Conversation was always a lively affair; Brian knew just how to challenge us in many a debate! We miss you. RIP, Brian.
