“ Brian and I worked together for many years at Gulf Oil, Royal Trust and CN.
When he arrived for his first day of work at CN, I gave him what I hoped was a stern look and said, “Stop following me.” Then we both burst out laughing.
Lots of chuckles over the years.
I’m so sorry to hear this news – my condolences to his family.

“ Even though I never met brian in person we had many conversations on the phone over the years. Everytime he picked up the phone he was already laughing when he would say Mr. Jamieson what can I do for you today? Because he knew I would have something funny to say to brighten up his day. He was the best of the best at his job, and could always be counted on. Since he took his pension I have missed his voice and I will never forget it. I am truly saddened hearing of his passing. Myself and my family send our deepest condolences to the family.

Yesterday I quit smoking!
