“ I'm met Bryn when I was 15 , the first time he came over to England to visit sue , once I met Bryn I took an instant like to him and for the next two weeks we had such a great time , never not laughing and joking and listening to his stories fascinated me ! We had several trips over to Canada to visit Bryn and his family and friends , these are great memories and great times to look back on, R I P BRYN

“A Million Times”

*A million times we've needed you,
A million times we've cried.
If love alone could've saved you,
You never would have died.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we love you still.
In our hearts you hold a place,
No one else will ever fill.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you didn't go alone.
Part of us went with you,
The day you were taken home.*

“Bryn and I went to school together we were like brothers both mad on Manchester United and Elvis I would phone after most Utd games when we would chew the fat over the result. I came over in late November and had six super days reminiscing about our teenage years much to Teresa's amusement. Goodby Bryn I will miss you I will be with you all at the Legion in spirit if not person. RIP BRYN. Brian.

“ This man was a great gentleman, in every sense of the word, he was forever young, and I loved that about him and still do. We have had a lot of happy memories together, but the one that highlights it for me is when I got him to phone his daughter in Wales, whom he had not seen since she was 6 months old. I have so many happy thoughts of that time. He was happy, cause he had to call his friend in Wales to get her phone # and he gave it to him and I told him, you call that girl before you go to bed tonight. Well he was a changed man, so happy that was the first time he got to talk to his daughter and there were plans made. They came to Canada that summer and went on a visit to Wales after we got married. He was showing me around where he used to live and introduced me to neighbours that were still there, and his next door neighbours were still there. He was so happy especially being around Sue and his grandchildren. I have some wonderful pictures of that trip and I will never forget that trip it was wonderful . I will always love him he was a wonderful man.
