

Mr. Bruce Adamson

December 15, 2015

It is with great sadness that the Adamson, Reid and Allen families announce the sudden passing of Bruce Adamson on December 15, 2015. Bruce was a graduate of York University, Queen's Faculty of Law and the Musicians Institute in Hollywood, California. His hot guitar licks, good humour and intelligence will be missed by all who knew him. He leaves behind his former spouse Arianne Reid, his daughter Maggie and son Robbie, his father Torrance Adamson and his mother Verna (née Allen), his cousins David and Kathryn Allen, his aunt Sylvia Allen as well as his uncle and good friend Doug Adamson.

“ My path crossed with Bruce's just very briefly. We met in the bar admission course 20 years ago. I was getting back into playing guitar, and I was impressed that there was an actual professional musician in our group. Bruce answered my clueless questions about guitars and guitar-playing with good humour. We didn't stay in touch, but I continued to be aware of Bruce's musical work through our mutual friend Lawrie Ingles. My condolences to Bruce's family and friends on this sad and unexpected loss.

“ Bruce was my guitar teacher many years ago when I was a teenager. He was such a warm, enthusiastic person and had a very positive influence on me as a musician and as a person. My thoughts go out to his family and friends during this time.

“ Bruce was the most affable person I ever knew. No one who met him could not be affected by his good nature.
