“ I was very shocked and saddened to see the obituary in an old copy of the Globe and Mail. I once lived with the Carruthers family on Lympstone Avenue around 1968. I remember Anne, Meg, Keith, Jane and Patty very fondly. I was their live-in babysitter as I was working two jobs in order to save for my wedding. Bruce and Carolyn were very kind to me. My sincerest condolences to all the family. Patricia Brennan nee Cormier.

“ Our Sincere Condolences to Carolyn and Family, Nancy, and Cathy on the passing of Bruce from Jane Lindsay (Webb), Mary Webb, and Nancy Carol Yates (Webb). Sandra Purchase (Webb) passed away 5 years ago. We are the daughters of Marjorie (Lock) and Gordon Webb, Granddaughters of Jean and Nathan Lock. Our Nancy was named after your Nancy.

It was by chance that Bruce's Obituary caught my eye in the Globe. The resemblance to Aunt Maggie brought childhood memories tumbling into mind. The visits at Ridley Blvd; one a birthday celebration for Aunt Maggie with Margaret, Grace, Nancy, and Cathy amongst many and amazing frozen strawberry ices, and a visit following the Santa Claus Parade. Also, your family visits to Nana and Grandpa's wonderful Innerkip farm. All of these circa late 1940s and 1950s. Mom had often told us of the summer she spent at the Honey Harbour cottage with Bruce, Rob, and Nancy and the photos still remain in her album.

You are in our thoughts and prayers.
