

Caleb Thomas Bevan

August 28, 2020

December 29, 1981 – August 28, 2020

A loving husband, father, brother, cousin and friend, Caleb left us suddenly on Friday, August 28, 2020, at Lakeridge Health Oshawa, at the young age of 38.

Words cannot express how deeply and dearly he is missed by Melissa, his loving wife, soulmate and the target of his offbeat, goofy humor, by his children Cooper and McKenna, who will have to live on without his big hugs, his culinary skills and his ability to wring out instant joy from any family activity, and by his canine pals Sydney and Dash, who could always rely on him for a treat or two and a belly rub at any time of the day. A cherished son to Haly Holmes (Steve Stretten) and Ted Bevan (Marg), loving brother to Bria (Jeff), Sayward (Drew), Dave (Lindsey), and Sarah (Matt), beloved son-in-law to Maria and John, and dear brother-in-law to Tyler (Lisa) and Cole, Caleb was a wonderful uncle to his nieces and nephews and a treasured cousin to so many in the Holmes and Bevan clans. He will be especially missed by his close friends, with whom he forged unbreakable bonds that lasted many years, including Jeff, Sean, Rob, Drew and Adam.

May your soul fly free, Caleb, where it is meant to be, among the trees and along the still waters, and may your memory continue to warm our hearts forever.

“ Wow. It has been a long time since I last saw Caleb. A few times while I was in College, I would drop by the Bevan's place in Oshawa. Caleb was a great and funny guy. All of my condolences to his family and all the Bevan's.

“ I haven't seen Caleb since I was a teenager, but I can see from the other comments that he kept on making people laugh and bringing his unique flavour of playful joy. I remember one friend's sleepover birthday party in particular, a group of boys, all about 11 or 12. Caleb was singing and dancing and essentially doing the pre-teen version of standup comedy, and had us all in doubled over and rolling on the floor we were laughing so hard. My heart goes out to his family. He was a bright light.

Caleb you will always be in my heart and my soul. God gave you to me 38 years ago and you have brought so much joy and laughter into my life. Although I selfishly want more time with you I was blessed with the 38 years. Until we meet again my beloved son.
