“ Our condolences to the family. Carol Anne will be missed. She was an amazingly talented lady and could do any kind of craft. She will be remembered for her gifted hands and for literally saving Paul from going down the wrong path. She looked after my brother and straightened him out. He honored her and loved her very much. They made a good couple. She was a special lady and a good sister in law. We are grateful that she came into our lives. May you find comfort in remembering all the good qualities she shared and memories she's left. God's love and peace be with you during this very difficult time. Love and hugs, Joan Graves

“ Unfortunately, we never had a chance to meet this lady but she sounds like someone we would have loved to know. We are friends with her sister, Paula (Rod Blair); we met through the Wndermere Music Jam, and it is obvious that the Stevensons are good people. Bruce and I send deepest sympathies to Carol's family as they grieve her passing <3

“ I miss my Mom, I am her fourth child, the baby, Shelley. She is at peace now. She was wonderful, my Mother. I know she has struggled in life but she tried her best. I will always love her forever. She has missed my Dad since he passed in 2015. I am glad that she is happy with him in heaven. She enjoyed spending time with my family in Ontario for the christmas holiday and her birthday. She will now rest in peace.
