

Mrs. Carolyn Jane Daybell (nee Barrett)

July 31, 2012

After a long and valiant battle at Scarborough Grace Hospital, Carolyn passed away on Tuesday, July 31, 2012. Born in Saint John, NB, on July 5, 1934, she was the daughter of Josephine (Walsh) and Daniel J. Barrett and will be sorely missed by brother Edward Walsh (Ned) Barrett (Honor) of Montreal. She was predeceased by her brother Bill and sisters Marita, Dianne, and Elizabeth. Left to mourn are her husband of 51 years, Joseph in Markham, ON, and sons John Andrew in Vancouver, James Edward (Ned) in Chicago. She dearly loved her Daybell girls in Vancouver, granddaughters Angela, Heather (Trevor Egeto), Tara, and Lauren (Matt Heinemann) and great granddaughters Olivia, Madelyn, and Lilah. She also looked forward, with great anticipation, to her yearly visits with her greatly loved grandchildren, Joseph, Kaitlyn, and Logan of Chicago. Carolyn will also be greatly missed by her loving nephews Dr. Gregory Schinn of Quebec City, and Gerald and Geoffery Henriksen of Mississauga and their families. Carolyn loved a capella quartet singing in the babershop style, and was active for many years, in many places across North America, in various chapters of the Sweet Adelines, not only adding her solid bass to various quartets and choruses, but serving in numerous administrative positions as well. Her many friends from Vancouver to Saint John will be saddened to learn of her passing. Cremation has taken place, and a gathering of family and friends will take place on a future date in Saint John to honour her memory. The family would like to thank the doctors, nurses, and staff of the ICU at Scarborough Grace Hospital for their constant care and attention offered to Carolyn throughout her long fight.
