

Mr. Cavan John Forbes Jackson

May 20, 2014

Suddenly on Tuesday, May 20th, 2014 at the age of 29. Profoundly missed and loved by his wife Sharon Jackson (née Murphy); sister Rowan Jackson (Maciej Jastrzebski); sister-in-law Brenda Murphy; parents Stephen and Carol Jackson; father and mother-in-law Jim and Jane Murphy; grandmothers Marny Jackson and Rena Forbes; and a great host of uncles, aunts, cousins and friends. Predeceased by grandfathers Barrie Jackson and The Reverend John Forbes. A memorial service will be held at St. Andrew's Church located at 73 Simcoe Street, Toronto (King Street and Simcoe Street) at 7 pm on Friday, May 30th, 2014. Reception to follow. Donations may be made to:

St. Andrew's Church Out of the Cold Program

<https://www.canadahelps.org/dn/12899>

Evangel Hall Mission

<http://www.evangelhall.ca/donate/>

Previous Events

Memorial Service

MAY 30. 7:00 PM (ET)

St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church
73 Simcoe Street
Toronto, ON M5J 1W9 (CA)

Tribute Wall

SA

“ Cavan was an amazing unique person unlike anyone I've ever met. I feel so grateful to have had the wonderful experiences we shared. He was caring, talented and above all a great friend. He will be missed but will always stay close to my heart. My condolences go out to his family.

sanja - May 31, 2014 at 12:09 PM

PD

“ I've spent the last week thinking a lot about Cavan, too many memories to collect here, but what really stands out is how central and significant he was to our time together at Leaside High School. Cavan's passion and talent for art was so very inspiring--and sometimes frustrating when he could create a masterpiece in seemingly no time while the rest of us art class kids spent weeks trying to reach the same level of brilliance to minimal success. I'll always treasure Cavan's sketches that litter the pages of my yearbooks. Outside of school, Cavan and I got up to many adventures---one time we walked from his house all the way to the Eaton Centre and it felt like we'd taken over the whole city. We were the only kids in school with neon-coloured hair (me pink, him blue) and it was always nice to have someone else to hang out with who was interested in the types of music, movies and pop culture things that make the "cool kids" think you're "weird and different." But really, wasn't that the best way to be?

Cavan, I'll always cherish our time together. I'm sorry I cannot be there tonight for the service to say goodbye, but I am thinking of you, as well as your family and friends.

Paige Dzenis - May 30, 2014 at 05:18 PM

“ A informal Wake has been booked at the Overdraft irish pub Irish Pub to begin at 9pm after the memorial. The first round of Whisky is on me.

*156 Front St. West
(just below Joe Badali's)
Toronto, ON M5J 2L6*

Jonathan Laba - May 30, 2014 at 12:47 PM

MG

“ Cavan and I were best friends growing up. I often think back on all of the amazing times we had. From the summer camps and canoe trips to biking in the creek and the weekly rock climbing, especially climbing on the wall that Steve had built in the back yard. I feel truly honoured to have had Cavan in my life. He was an amazing person and an incredible friend, and he will be greatly missed. My deepest sympathies to all of his loved ones.

Matt Gutenberg - May 29, 2014 at 05:10 PM

MS

“ Cavan was a friend when we were teenagers and I will remember him as the incredibly smart, funny guy I used to look up to. Rest in peace, friend, and deepest sympathies to family and friends.

Maya Soren - May 26, 2014 at 01:15 PM

AN

“ Dear Steve and Carol,

It was shocking to read the obit in the G&M this weekend. I am so sorry for your loss and cannot imagine what you are going through. My thoughts are with you. I felt that I knew Cavan a bit through the stories that Steve told, and I knew from those stories that there was an incredibly strong family bond. If there is anything, anything I can do, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Albert Nigro

Abert Nigro - May 25, 2014 at 03:04 PM

EB

“ I knew Cavan when we were both teenagers, curious and skeptical and always laughing. He will be missed, but not forgotten.

Emma Baril - May 25, 2014 at 01:38 PM

EF

“ Most of my memories of Cavan are during his childhood. I can remember walking him home from school, chatting about his day (his wavy blonde hair framing his face out from under his "Indiana Jones" hat), setting traps for his sister, watching "The Last of the Mohicans", ending our evening with Sleepy Time tea. He was a great kid and more beautiful than all the seasons beauty put together. My deepest sympathies go out to his family and friends.

*With love,
Effie*

Effie - May 24, 2014 at 10:36 PM

LW

“ We were hosting Easter dinner one year and I had made a decor table centre piece of stuffed bunnies and candy covered chocolate eggs. Cavan began to enjoy the eggs as soon as we were seated. His grandmother very tactfully said to him, " I think those are part of the dessert." Cavan looked at me and said, " Oh, sorry." I replied, " It's o.k. Cavan, I'm glad that you are enjoying them." We did have plenty to use to decorate our dessert. Such a simple moment with such a wonderful young man.

Linda Willis - May 24, 2014 at 06:48 AM

HK

“ Such a sad time for you all. I remember the special occasion when this picture of him was taken--it was a happy day. Hugh and I send our love and support.

Hugh and Margot Kyle - May 24, 2014 at 06:08 AM

“ Cavan Gifted to me The Histories by Herodotus when I went travelling, it's the book in the background. It taught me about the vastness of culture and the importance of immersion.

Thanks man,

Jonathan Laba - May 23, 2014 at 02:51 PM

“ http://www.rdio.com/artist/The_Offspring/album/Americana/

At the age of 14 Cavan and I went to this concert together. Opening act was the Living End.

We both crowd surfed at the same time and the crowd ensured we stayed together, it was incredible.

No other concert experience even comes close to this one.

Jonathan Laba - May 23, 2014 at 02:42 PM