In Loving Memory of César Francisco Galarza

May 3, 1957 – May 30, 2026

Today, we honor and celebrate the life of our beloved César Francisco Galarza.

César was a man with a heart of gold, whose kindness and generosity touched countless lives. He never hesitated to help those in need and always shared whatever he had, no matter how little. His greatest joy was caring for others, especially his family, whom he loved deeply.

A devoted brother, a faithful servant of God, and a loyal friend, César lived a life guided by compassion, humility, and faith. His gentle spirit, warm smile, and loving presence brought comfort to everyone around him.

Although our hearts are broken by his passing, we find peace in knowing that his suffering has ended and that he now rests in God's loving embrace.

César, thank you for the love you gave, the lessons you taught, and the beautiful memories you leave behind. Your place in our hearts can never be filled.

Until we meet again, we will carry you with us in every prayer, every memory, and every act of kindness inspired by your example.

You were deeply loved.

You will be greatly missed.

You will be remembered forever.

Forever in our hearts.

Tribute Wall

“ Even though you are no longer physically with us, your memory will continue to live in our hearts. Thank you for every moment, for your kindness, and for the beautiful mark you left on our lives. You were a very special person, and we will always remember you with love and gratitude. Rest in peace. 🕊️📖

“ Ferrari

*It was a weekend day,
A little cold out and a little grey,
The sun was out but behind the clouds,
On tios street the cars horned and the city grew loud,
I pulled over in front of his place with my car still running,
The wheels not moving but the engine still humming,
As I sit and wait to help him come in the car,
I lose track of time and start thinking with the stars,
Day dreaming as one would call it,
Then the noise of a door shutting made me pause it, “Mijooo!” And there he is walking towards me with arms wide open “Tiooo!” As i come out the car and leaving the door without it even closing
“Wow this is your car? It sounds like a Ferrari!”
“Thank you tio, one day i wish to have one and ill take you driving dont worry!”
“Life will give you more mijo but always be thankful with what you have”
“Always tio, for you, my family, ill always be glad”
“Wow this car is fast mijo”
“Like a ferrari tio?”
“Si mijo better than a Ferrari”*

“ In Loving Memory of My Tío, Cesar Francisco Galarza

There are some people who leave footprints on our hearts that time can never erase. My tío was one of those people. His kindness, his strength, his laughter, and the love he shared with everyone around him will stay with us forever.

Tío, gracias por cada consejo, cada sonrisa y cada momento compartido. Tu amor por la familia fue un regalo que siempre llevaremos en el corazón. Nos enseñaste el verdadero significado de la unión, la humildad y la perseverancia.

You may no longer be here for us to hug or hear your voice, but your spirit lives on in every memory, every story, and every lesson you left behind. We will honor you by loving each other the way you loved us.

Aunque hoy nuestras lágrimas hablan del dolor de tu ausencia, también celebran la bendición de haberte tenido en nuestras vidas. Siempre serás parte de nosotros, caminando a nuestro lado en los momentos más importantes.

Thank you for being such an incredible uncle, a role model, and a source of unconditional love. We will miss you every single day, but we find comfort knowing that love never dies.

Descansa en paz, querido tío Cesar. Vuela alto y cuida de todos nosotros desde el cielo. Hasta que nos volvamos a encontrar, vivirás en nuestros corazones y en cada recuerdo que nos haga sonreír.

May 3, 1957 – May 30, 2026

Forever loved. Forever missed. Siempre amado. Siempre

recordado.
