“ I took German in Christine's class for several years. She was a born teacher, she loved teaching and was full of energy. Christine was more than a teacher to us. She "adopted" us all regardless of our age, occupation, ethnicity and anything else, and often she would invite us to her and Eugen's beautiful home. Among her many talents; Christine was also a great hostess and a virtuoso in the kitchen, and I will always remember the warm atmosphere, the sweet and tasty cookies, cakes and delicious dishes she prepared. Christine was a proud German and proud Canadian and I think both Germans and Canadians can be proud of Christine.

Above all Christine was a kind and compassionate human being. Around Christmas time in 2003, my wife was on the dead bed in hospital. I was crushed. One morning I was just about to go to the hospital to be with my dying wife, the door bell rings. I opened the door. It was a real cold snowy and windy Canadian winter morning. There was Christine in this blizzard. She brought a box of her cookies to me and my sick wife. It is hard to describe how deeply I was touched by this gesture. I told her: "Christine, you are an angel". She replied: "No, I am not".

YES CHRISTINE, YOU WERE AN ANGEL THEN, AND YOU ARE FOR SURE AN ANGEL NOW.

*Viele Danke fur alles Christine, and God bless your soul.
My sincere condolences to Eugen and the family.
