Chunjuan Xiang

1934 – 2017

It is with great sadness we announce the passing of our dear mother and grandmother, Chunjuan Xiang, May 6, 2017 at the age of 82. Daughter of the late Dawei Xiang and Guohua Zhong. Survived by daughter Li Xiang (Terrence Verity), son Tong Xiang (Dongxia Guo), granddaughter Hanlin Xiang, grandson Jiankun Dylan Xiang, sisters Yajuan Xiang (Shizhang Song), Baojuan Shen (Peitang Rao), nephew Zhi Ye.

Chunjuan was a devoted mother with a great sense of humor. Born in Wuhan, Hubei, the People's Republic of China, she had a happy childhood. She received an excellent education from childhood on. She attended St. Hilda's School in Wuhan where she learned English, music and baseball! Following St. Hilda's, she graduated with a B.A. Degree in Music from Huazhong Normal University. She worked as a musician and a music teacher in Chinese People's Liberation Army. Following, she was a music teacher at Huazhong University of Science and Technology and the Wuhan Conservatory of Music. After retirement, she joined Wuhan Intellectual's Senior Choir and later co-organized St. Hilda's Choir to commemorate her school.

She loved music and trained many students in her career. She loved travel and toured many sites in China and around the world.

In later life she faced some difficulties and adversities which she survived to give her more strength and persistence. Throughout her life she was always a kind and generous person. She had a strong religious faith and enthusiastically contributed her time and effort to her church. She immigrated to Canada to join her daughter's family in 2014.

She is deeply missed by daughter Li Xiang, son Tong Xiang, grandchildren Hanlin Xiang and Jiankun Dylan Xiang, and her many family members and friends in Canada and China.
