

Mr. Daniel Dillon

January 23, 2014

Passed away January 23rd after a sudden and short fight with Cancer. He is survived by his wife Brooke & and their Children S, B, R & M. We will never be the same and you will never be forgotten, we love you. Special thanks to the care of Dr. Mainprize for doing everything you could and giving us a small window of precious time. There will be a memorial service planned at a later date. We thank our friends and family in advance for privacy at this time.

Tribute Wall

MR

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

MrsDillon - March 23, 2024 at 05:58 AM

MR

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

MrsDillon - January 24, 2024 at 07:41 AM

MR

“ It's been 10 years since my husband passed away. My darling gem Ruby was so polite, she takes after her dad ❤️
Eff you Pat, Eff you Robert. Daniel wanted nothing to do with you clowns :)

Connie you know better

Cindy, I appreciate that you have not posted anything here because Daniel knew you loved him and respected him

Edward Dan loved you and your words are appreciated

Debbie your brother loved you even though he did not always agree with you and your words are appreciated

The Wife

MrsDillon - January 24, 2024 at 03:47 AM

RU

“ I would like to start this off by saying i never got to fully get to know my dad, as he passed away when i was only 6 and i am now almost 17, In my memories he was a kind and gentle soul, with the best humor and a sincere smile, people often described him as patient or silly, and i couldn't agree more. i love my dad and what happened to him was a horrible fate for such a loving family man. he and my mom were (and still are) my everything when i was small, they taught me what a loving and happy relationship looks like, and of course everyone has ups and downs we are all human, but this man loved unconditionally, always lending a hand to those in need and is endlessly talented. the few memories i have with my dad i treasure more then anything, my favorite was a moment we shared late at night, it was past my bed time but i could never seem to sleep at night so i got up to go sit with my dad, normally he would pick me up and bring me back to my bed, but this time he let me stay on the couch with him, we watched shows until i fell asleep. a close second would be the the times we went tobogganing and he would carry me up the hill so i did not have to walk. I'm sure you get the point, i looked forward to playing with my father when he came home from work everyday and i never really realized there would be a last for things like this. raising us wasn't easy but I'm sure he wouldn't change it for the world. i think about my father every day and i hope hes looking down on me and is proud of who i have become, i will always keep him close to my heart and Me, my mom and my 3 siblings love him endlessly, I'm so thankful for all the well wishes from my parents friends, they are well received. - R

Ruby - January 09, 2024 at 10:32 PM

MR

MrsDillon - January 24, 2024 at 06:53 AM

CM

“ Just over 9 years ago we lost a special soul. Quiet, gentle, qurkie sense of humor. So many Christmases spent with your family and mine. My Lisa still misses her childhood best friend, and still cries over her loss. I know your mom grieves every day for you. She has missed seeing and getting to know her other grand babies, sawyer,maverick, Bryn and ruby. Their brother Rhys also has missed a lot, and would love to hear from his siblings. This auntie truly wishes she could hear one more time " I love you auntie connie". I think of you often and never give up on seeing your brothers and sisters again. There is nothing more important in this world as family.

Connie McLellan - January 25, 2023 at 12:21 PM

MR

So cute Connie, how you and your sister decided to desecrate this space with your dually banal pontification precisely 17 minutes apart 9 years later

MrsDillon - January 24, 2024 at 07:03 AM

PD

“ I miss you so much, not a day goes by that Dad & I don't wish you were still here. You were taken from us truly too soon. Your son Rhys has a picture of you by his bed and sees you every day. Your five children will always miss having their extraordinary dad in their lives. Your boundless love for Rhys, Sawyer, Bryn, Maverick, and Ruby, is something we know will stay with the 5 of them always. Danny, I so miss your hugs, you always knew how to make me smile,. The bond between us is something no one could ever break. Dad & I will forever miss you. Our constant remember is still living with us, we know how proud you must of him. He's so much like you, warm, compassionate, reliable, has your quirky sense of humor, and drops those one liners just like you. He'll be 22 next month, and, hard to believe, we're very proud of him, he's so much like his Dad. I believe you can see all five of your children from heaven, and that you are watching out for them. Keep watching, and be proud of who you are, our son, their Dad, till we meet again Danny, you'll always be remembered with so much ❤️. Love you. Mom & Dad & Rhys.

Pat and Bob Dillon (mom and dad) - January 25, 2023 at 12:04 PM

MR

Perhaps you should have cared more when he was alive Pat, commenting 9 years later speaks volumes

MrsDillon - January 24, 2024 at 07:00 AM

MR

Patricia, Daniel's children request that you not mention them in the context that you know them (SBMR) they do not know you. You were estranged from your son for years before he passed away. So strange that 9 years after Daniel passed away you posted this fairy tale on his obituary 🙄♀️

MrsDillon - January 24, 2024 at 08:31 AM

ED

“ Almost 7 years since Dan has passed away and I still think of him. Dan was the closest thing I had to a brother. I remember taking off on our bikes on the weekend and going to the park or even going to Fairview mall to hang around and have lunch. I remember how much he was into model cars and how he would rave about wanting to get into airplane mechanics. Sleeping over at my aunt and uncles house, watching "Start Trek the next generation" having breakfast in the morning. Dressing up during Halloween and scaring the kids and parents. I have a lot of fond memories of my cousin. He will always have a special place in my heart. Until we meet again.

Edward Dillon - December 26, 2020 at 04:09 PM

MR

Thank you Edward, he truly loved you

MrsDillon - January 24, 2024 at 06:56 AM

 Joan Brant

“ Oh Dan I still can't believe it. I'm still expecting some message online from you asking what I'm doing and a story about the family.

I met Dan at Centennial College in the Aviation program. He made going to classes fun. Loved the conversations we had. I will always remember the trip to CFB Trenton with you. Oh the laughs we had on that drive. I wish we had got a chance to visit after college. Miss you my friend. To his beloved wife and children.,, I never had the privilege of meeting you but Dan spoke of you often with great love. He was very proud of you. My heart goes out to you all. Dan was an exceptional loving man who was taken too soon. lots of love and prayers of strength to his family.

Joan Brant - March 10, 2014 at 06:20 AM

LF

“ Although I didn't have the chance to see you that often, the times we did share certainly will be cherished and won't be forgotten. Your love and legacy will live on through great memories and your loving family.

linda folkard - March 05, 2014 at 08:56 AM

LM

“ As it is, I only had opportunity to speak with Daniel a couple of times before his passing, accompanied by his lovely wife. The thing about those moments we spent talking is that they were unforgettable. We spoke at length about subjects most men know so very little about, let alone care to talk about.. His intelligence and kindness were apparant and left a lasting impression, and I feel very fortunate to have had those conversations with a loving, exceptional family man.

Deepest sympathies, and heartfelt love, go out to his beautiful family, always.

Laura. Xo

laura mcburney - March 05, 2014 at 08:44 AM

KI

“ You were taken from this earth far too soon. You will be missed

Kirk - March 04, 2014 at 11:23 PM

“ Shannon Singleton lit a candle in memory of Mr. Daniel Dillon

Shannon Singleton - March 04, 2014 at 07:38 PM

Roger Hendrix

“ An amazing man who him and his family opened up their hearts and home to many such as myself. He was always willing to help out those around him. Strong in stature but sweet n tender at heart. My thanks goes out to him as he was an incredible man who always put others ahead of his own wants n needs. The world needs more like him. RIP brother. It was an honor to know you.

Roger Hendrix - March 04, 2014 at 05:57 PM

“ My fondest memory of my brother has to be our star trek marathon days. Dan I and I would make popcorn and set up on his bed our drinks and snacks and start watching. Being a water bed it as tricky but he showed me a few tricks one of which was making a platform out of his lego. He loved lego! My brother and I have had our share of fun times and sad times, mad times and glad times. But I never stopped loving him. Not for a minute. His wife and kids are his heart and sole and will forever live on in them. His family will always hold him in our hearts and remember him for the truly fantastic person he was. xo Dan

~Deb~

Deb Parsons - February 17, 2014 at 11:24 AM

“ Dan.... You Will Never be forgotten ...Always Brightened up a Room with your Kindness & Laughter....No matter the tension..Kept everyone I knew at peace....Amazing with Kids ..Will Never Be Forgotten..Sending My Condolences from My Family to Yours!!!..

Mike D Jingle - February 15, 2014 at 01:22 AM

RI

“ Dan and I weren't the closest friends in recent years, but thanks to facebook, we reconnected somewhat. Given the circumstances, I wish I could have known him and his family better, you always think there is "tomorrow"... In High school, I had a few close friends, not many, and I'm proud to say that Dan was one of them. We did everything together and my fondest memory (although weirdest) is of how Dan loved chicken. He couldn't get enough of it and I felt quite disturbed as he was molesting his chicken leg quite right at lunch one time. He responded to my almost confused look with a glazed look in his eye saying, "I love chicken". So he was chicken boy from then on out to me. Dan really did have a heart of gold and the world is a lesser place for having lost him. He did right by his kids and wife and I do know he loved them very much! R.I.P. Dan, I do hope to see you again one day, you didn't deserve such and awful and disgusting fate!

Rich - February 14, 2014 at 10:09 PM

JF

“ Mr Dan Dillon, the man with the smile. Glad for the friendship we had, and you always making us laugh. You were a great man, father, husband, and brother and son. May you look down at us all and just smile. We will miss you

jan foster - February 14, 2014 at 12:16 PM

KI

Thanks Jan.

Kitty - February 15, 2014 at 12:14 AM

Melissa
Brown

“ Melissa Brown lit a candle in memory of Mr. Daniel Dillon

Melissa Brown - February 14, 2014 at 12:09 AM

KI

Thanks Melissa

Kitty - February 15, 2014 at 12:14 AM

Emerald
Watters

“ You will be greatly missed, Dan. I am so fortunate to have gotten to know you, and your sense of humor and kindness have made a difference in my life. My greatest condolences to Kitty and the kiddos. Love you guys. -Emerald

Emerald Watters - February 13, 2014 at 08:55 PM

KI

Thanks Em.

Kitty - February 15, 2014 at 12:13 AM