“ Danny my first cousin and pretend brother. I remember Danny coming to Barbados in the summer time when we were kids we had lots of fun and we didn't want him to leave. When I come to Canada I saw Danny again but he worked nights. Great times where had when Danny got time off to come to the trailer park...many jokes were shared we were always bent over laughing. Danny introduced me to dimsom, Betty Boop, rock music and more recently the past 3 years the videos of falcons nesting their young in Texas. I loved his morning weather update "don't go out it's nasty!" and also showing me new gadgets he purchased. We had fun discussions on government matters we would change. Danny was a gentleman, a hard worker and most of all my cousin who carried his heart on his sleeve. I was broken hearted to see his pain when he lost his Dad and then his Mom during COVID. Then so happy to see his joy when he had his son Sean. Danny's FB messages almost every day when I was laid off and he was retired kept me looking forward and grounded. Danny you no longer have pain, you were a real trooper. I can truly say I miss my cousin Danny terribly. I will continue to make your yearly Christmas treats. I promise! Love you.

“ My cousin Danny was always happy go lucky, that infectious smile, a lot of laughter and many jokes being told. I remember as youngsters growing up many a Christmas with the family eating pepper pot. Danny was passionate about sports, Baseball, Hockey and NFL - his team Buffalo Bills and mine is Miami Dolphins so we had a rivalry going on. Danny, was very protective and proud of his sister, Brenda and son, Sean (many pictures/texts of the three of them as well as videos of Sean scoring goals in hockey and team trophies). Danny was an early bird, texts that he had all his food shopping done; had been to the casino and his big breakfast's made. I miss all the texts. A beloved cousin who will live in my heart forever. Luv always, I will see you again but not yet. Simone Dunn

“ Danny was a great friend for a long time although we lost touch as our lives went in different directions. Danny was always calm, fun, and always had a good thing to say about everyone. The last time we met, he was so proud of Sean, showing pictures, and such a very proud Dad which reminded me of how Aubrey and Ruth were so proud of Danny and Brenda. A Great man who passed far too young. Len Goudy
