“ My heart is both full of love and pain as we process the passing of my dear stepdad, Dan.

He was amazing partner to my Mom. I will forever be grateful and inspired by the fierceness of his love for her.

We loved celebrating Christmas Eve with him with great food, stories and even an occasional Christmas caper.

Sending hugs out to all who knew and loved him. We will celebrate his life by raising a glass and having a laugh. He wouldn't want it any other way.

“ I have a lot of great memories of time spent with Dan when we were younger. We did a lot of fishing , hunting , BBQ's , swimming and just spending time together driving around listening to great music. Later we ended up living in different places but always talked to each other on the phone. Dan would bring up some old memories and we would both laugh at some of the things we had done together. I am going to miss our phone calls but will always hold you in my memories. RIP my dear friend 💔

“ I remember being such a wee little girl and laying on your belly as Christmas story was being read to me ; Fred Nizzard was a character in this story and he was sort of like the Grinch. You used to say 'Fred Nizzard, Peggy's gizzard' while you grabbed lightly under my chin. Loved those times! As I was growing up, being you were older than I, you were living away in the big and bright city of Toronto and you would come home to Baie Vertr to visit...I recall always looking forward to these times. One time, I think I was about 8 years old, I was getting ready for you to arrive. When you did , I could hear you with Mom in the kitchen where I quietly came out to join you. I was always a little shy, yes me..shy, and I sat at the end of the table ; directly across from you I crossed my leg and placed my hand up on the table and began to slowly tap my fingers to grab your attention to my pretty pink Lee Press On nails that I was so excited about. You saw what I was doing, looked and gently smiled and as I tapped; one by one they began to pop off. You almost fell from your chair laughing and I ran from my chair crying with embarrassment.... You quickly got up to follow me, you picked me up and said I didn't need nails to be pretty because I was already beautiful!! You see, Danny, I always had a memory associated with laughter when it came to you. Being much younger I was usually only around the good times with you. Now I recall those happy times but I feel such a deep sadness that we cannot create more. Your laughter was contagious and your hugs were secure. I'm going to miss you and missing someone shows a depth of love as I will always carry for you, my brother. The son, the father, the hunter , the brother and the friend. Love always ...your baby sister Peggy
