

Mr. David (Earle) Lee

June 14, 2014

December 15, 1943 – June 14, 2014 passed away peacefully June 14th with his wife Michèle at his side at Bridgepoint Active Healthcare in Toronto after a short battle with a second cancer. David joined the RCAF in 1961 as a radar technician which led to a very successful career in the recording industry in Toronto where he got to know major Canadian recording artists on a first name basis. He began a new career with Ontario Liquor Control Board in 1984 from which he retired in 2005. His fascination with computers and all things digital was legend! Upon finding out his cancer would be terminal, he married longtime partner Michèle Mallet on April 30th. David leaves behind his wife Michèle in Toronto, his mother Margo and brothers Brian and Bruce, nephews Robert (Leslie) and Patrick, all of Calgary. As ordinary member of the Royal Canadian Legion Todmorden Branch 10, 1083 Pape Avenue, Toronto, ON M4K 3W7 a Celebration of life and Last Post will be held in the Legion's Clubroom at 12:30 PM on Saturday, June 28th. Donations, in lieu of flowers may be made to the Foundations of the Princess Margaret Cancer Centre and/or Bridgepoint Active Healthcare, where he spent the past few weeks receiving warm and supportive care from the staff of both institutions.
