“Debbie asked if I could add her memorial to this website....so here it is...

"The day I met David was one of the most embarrassing times of my life.

Six weeks before I had turned 50 and I decided to treat myself by buying an adult tricycle.

While riding the trike down a hill I lost control and fell off.

The crossing guard at the corner saw me and started to wave her sign at someone who was sitting on a porch nearby.

It turned out to be David.

He came over to where I was sitting on the grass with two skinned knees.

He helped me up and took me to his house and patched me up.

He made me a cup of tea and I was introduced to Frank.

When I left he gave me his phone number.

I phoned him a couple of days later to tell him how I was doing and to thank him.

We kept in touch and then eventually started going shopping together, watching TV and going out to eat.

I remember the day well that the car broke down.

It was my birthday and David was driving me to a friend's house.

David left me to deal with his dilemma and I continued on with my plans.

When I was going back home I got on the bus and there was David, on the bus, with a big bouquet of flowers. He stood up, gave me a big hug and said Happy Birthday!

I was so surprised and everyone on the bus cheered and clapped.

Through the years there were many more surprises.

David bought a bike and we would go to a lot of places together, dinners, ball games, fairs and shopping.

David was a great companion to me, I know that I was good for him also.

We developed a relationship that turned out to be what we both needed.

David once said that we would spend the rest of our lives together *and he gave me a commitment ring.

Who knew that his time would be cut so short.
When David got sick, I spent almost every day with him trying to cram everything he wanted to do in the days he had left.
In closing, I would like to say...David , I hope you are happy, pain-free and warm.
David, I love you and I miss you every day."*

“ I will always remember my brother David. He had the biggest heart in the world and he would give you anything he owned. Sharing his CD and DVD collection made him proud.

I am grateful to have shared our childhood together, all the laughter and fun we had.

I will look for one of my favorite pictures of a birthday party we went to at our friend Ron's house. We all had new flashlights and David and I had so much fun throwing cake on everyone.

“ Its over 40 years since I last met David, but i have fond memories of my time in Canada with my Aunt Kay, Uncle Frank and my cousins and their families. David had a chopper type bike that was way cooler than anything we had over here in England at that time. And he let me use it. Happy memories of kids being kids. Even when they did get me into trouble. Sorry for shooting your air rifle Uncle George, but you did teach me a lesson :)

“ David passed away Dec 9, 2013 at Scarborough Hospital about 5:15AM.
He had been diagnosed with lung cancer 6 months earlier.
David was the youngest member of his family and he will be sadly missed by his sisters Teresa and Christine and his brothers Jimmy, Peter, Kevin and John.
In the last 7 years of his life he was fortunate enough to have the loving friendship of Debbie Howard and they eventually became engaged.
Debbie attended to David's needs just about every day after his hospitalisation and her company helped him to cope with the many doctor's appointments and radiation therapy he had to endure. I wish they had met 30 years ago.
David requested that no funeral take place.
At a later time I will post a longer obituary for my little brother.
I have many good moments to share but right now I need to come to terms with his passing.
Family and friends, please add you own thoughts to this website.
Also if you have any photos to upload we could all enjoy them.
Love to you all.
Kevin.
