“ I recently heard about David’s passing through a very good friend and I am very saddened to hear this news. I met David when we both worked at Rogers Cable TV in the mid 1990’s and we hung out together quite a bit for several years and were very good friends.

David was always so much fun and I ALWAYS appreciated his dry and biting humor. I last saw David in 2003 with his partner Bill for a Christmas dinner he hosted and invited me to attend. I remember the evening well and it was the last time I saw David.

I remember David for his understanding, his kindness, his delightful and often cutting wit and his companionship. David was like an older brother to me during our friendship and I regret that he doesn’t know how much of an influence he was in my life. David exposed me to ideas and interests that to this day play a big part of my life and I fondly remember all of the experiences and memories we shared together.

I’m very sad to hear of David’s passing and regret that I will not see him again in this life. I’m sorry we couldn’t have seen each other before he passed.

I have missed you David and thank you for being my friend and know you have been and are still in my heart. I miss you.

Kevin
