“ I have know Denny since my teens and always admired the man. He and my father Murray as well as my wife Bonnie worked together for many years in his diamond business. In recent years Denny turned out to be our neighbor in Ballantrae. Denny would often drop by and share stories about adventures with Dad in the old days, and we always chatted about golf swings. From time to time he would pass along an old photo of Dad and himself and there was always a great story to go along with it. We are so sad to hear of his passing and we wish the Edminson family our condolences and deepest sympathy at this very difficult time.

So many happy memories of so many happy times spent with Denny and Loes, both in Toronto and when they came to stay with us in Norfolk UK. It was only a few weeks ago when we last spoke on the phone, and he sounded so fit and well then. Happy days in that great golf course in the sky Denny . Ann & Mike xxx

My Sincere Condolences to you and your family.

I had the pleasure of meeting your Dad in 1972.

My father, Syd, took me to Dundas Square to buy a diamond for an engagement ring. Dennis took plenty of time to help me with my selection.

I was married in 1974 and my wife wears that diamond to this day.

I will remember your Dad as a real gentleman and a great guy.

Kind regards

Charlie Gillman

One of the last truly great role models - for anybody and everybody. 4 1/2 months have gone by. I truly miss him, but his memory inspires.

“ Dear Janet, Judy, David, Karen and Family,

I was shocked and saddened to see the obituary of your father in the paper today. My parents, Viola and Louis Zalkind were lifetime friends of Denny. Their friendship spanned decades and I know that friendship meant the world to them.

My sister, Sharon, and I remember fondly the trips to Mont Gabriel in Quebec and Stony Lake in Peterborough with your family so long ago. Your Dad always had a glint in his eye and a story to tell.

We've really enjoyed the many visits with him and Luce throughout the years. He truly was a "man among men". He will be missed.

Our Deepest Sympathies

“ Dear Janet, Judy, Karen and David:

Your Father was always part of our family circle too. He was the cultural interpreter for my parents who did not quite "get" life here when we were little. My parents looked upon him as a son and he was the only adult who I never had to call "Uncle" from the time I was a small child but was encouraged to address as "Denny".

To me he was a great mentor and a true friend as you said. He was the first person to put me on skates, as my folks had no such skills. He later taught me how to drive standard shift! He was the go-to guy when things did not quite go right.

It later became my privilege to know him as an adult. He made our lives richer. Men like him do not seem to happen very often, especially in these times when narcissism and selfishness are so common. He is irreplaceable; he will be sorely missed.
