Dennis Leung Kai Lau (梁繼瀏)

It is with deep sadness that we announce the passing of Dennis Leung Kai Lau(梁繼瀏), who died peacefully on June 22, 2025 at Scarborough Health Network- Birchmount Hospital in Toronto, just one week after celebrating his 87th birthday. Born in Hong Kong on June 15, 1938 to Leung Ngan (Bun Keung)/梁天 (本強) and Ho Lai Chun/何麗珍, Dennis was a man defined by his unwavering dedication to his family, his remarkable resilience, and his infectious sense of humour.

Dennis' early life in Hong Kong was marked by challenges. His childhood was during the Second World War. He was forced to leave school after his father fell ill and passed away, leaving Dennis, as the oldest son, with significant responsibilities. Despite this, he embarked on a distinguished career. Starting in low-level general labour, he rose to become a manager of an air travel service and then an air freight company in Hong Kong. He met Yolanda/小慧, the love of his life, when she was just fifteen years old. They were married in 1962.

In April 1974, with incredible courage and foresight, they immigrated to Toronto, Canada, with their two young children, Deborah and Gary. Dennis continued his career, most notably with Emery Worldwide serving business clients, where he retired in 2003. What he cherished most about his work was interacting with people, both customers and colleagues, bringing joy and laughter to his office environment.

Dennis was fun-loving and adventurous. In his younger days, he enjoyed camping and fishing and throughout his life he loved getting together with friends for Mahjong. Upon retirement, he and Yolanda embarked on 16 years of world travel, often on cruise ships with friends and family, visiting countless places and indulging his love for diverse cuisines. Dennis was meticulous in all he did; everything was neat and well-organized. His family often joked that if he had formal training, he could have been a master craftsman or inventor of the spreadsheet.

He was most known for his wonderful sense of humour, which lightened many rooms. His nephews and nieces, in particular, adored him and fondly thought of him as the "fun uncle", a role he embraced with immense joy, revelling in their love. He served as a father figure, travel companion, and dear friend to many of them. Within his immediate family, he was a pillar of strength, an extremely dedicated husband and father who did all the right things and all the hard things to ensure his family was well taken care of and on the best possible trajectory. It was in his role as grandfather, though, that he was able to thoroughly delight in the results of his hard work.

Dennis was most proud of the life he and Yolanda built, lifting their multi-generational family from extremely modest means in Hong Kong to a life where his children and grandchildren have flourished. His move to Canada in 1974 was a testament to his profound dedication to uplifting future generations, a goal he far surpassed.

Dennis is survived by his devoted wife of 62 years, Yolanda Leung Tsui Siu Wai/梁崔小慧. He was a loving father to Deborah Tang Leung Man Yin/梁孟賢 (Shee-Chang Tang/鄧樹鏘), and to Gary Leung Man Hay/梁孟禧 (Lisa Vincent). He was a cherished grandfather to James Leung Jyu Ho/梁鑄豪 (Katerina Leung), Kai Leung Jyu Chuen/梁鑄全 (Emily Parker) and Sabrina Tang Wei-Chun/鄧惠聰. He is also survived by his older sister Leung Yun Tim/梁潤甜 (the late Chan Wing Shui/陳永瑞), and was predeceased by his younger brother Francis Leung Kai Sum/梁繼森 (Teresa Ho Chi Han/何智嫻). Dennis leaves behind a large and loving circle of nephews, nieces, extended family and friends who will deeply miss his warmth, wisdom, and laughter.

A celebration of life will be held on the afternoon of Saturday, July 12, 2025 in Toronto. There will be no visitation. Dennis will be cremated and his ashes will be spread according to his wishes.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made in Dennis' memory to the “ 很懷念和 Dennis 一起共聚的日子！有他在的場合，他幽默風趣的的談吐，徐疾有致的語調，加上他和藹可親的笑容，既吸睛，又不時令大家起哄捧腹。

雖然Dennis 今天已去了一個與我們不同的時空生活，但我們會永遠記得和他共度的歡樂時光。永遠的懷念！永遠的感謝！

“ 我與往生者(梁繼瀏先生)及他太太結緣於約18年前的麻將牌局中
梁伯給我的印象是...

談笑風生，幽默風趣，體貼入微的丈夫

他倆對牌友們招呼非常周到，對每人咖啡'糖份'的喜好都緊記在心，從不出錯，這份細心令我嘆為觀止！

梁伯家居不但開陽整潔，井井有條，還擺放許多旅遊紀念品及溫馨的家庭照片，可想而知他是一位懂享受人生及著重家庭的好丈夫及父親。

每當太太在耍樂時，他都細心預備當晚的食材，在牌局完前已煮出一道色香味俱全的餸菜，好讓太太可立即享受晚餐。甚至後來他身體出現狀況，要靠Rollator付助行走時，也沒有改變這步驟。

謹以此文，告慰梁伯在天之靈，望先生一路走好
晚輩
